BRIGHAM YOUNG.

He is to be Arrested as Accessory to a Murder—Facts of the Case in Possession of the United States Authorities.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Affairs in Utah are approaching a crisis. The dispatch dated yesterday from Salt Lake City, reporting and at the same time contradicting the arrest of BRIGHAM YOUNG, has more foundation than appears. The fact is known here that the United States Grand Jury have indicted YOUNG for being accessory to a murder; and it is also probable that DANIEL H. WELLS, Lieutenant-General of the NAUVOO Legion, and GEO. A. SMITH, next in rank, to BRIGHAM YOUNG and one or two others have also been inculpated. Not long since the United States officers in the Territory became cognizant of a brutal murder committed in Utah by order of YOUNG, in 1857, and the Governor determined to bring the guilty parties to justice. One of the parties, a Danite, named HICKMAN, concerned in the deed, was arrested, whereupon he disclosed, among other things, that he and two others, by order of BRIGHAM YOUNG, in 1857, murdered a man in Echo Cañon, took $900 off his person, delivering it to BRIGHAM, and telling him where they got it. The Governor sent to the place where HICKMAN said the bones of the murdered man could be found, and they were found just as stated. He also described how the skull was broken in by a bar of iron, and that was found to be true. It is on the testimony of this man and his accomplices that the case against YOUNG and his confederates has been made out. The United States officers in Utah are very resolute, and are working together in their fight against Mormon domination with great courage and entire harmony. So far the Mormon power has been beaten in every instance.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 29.—Gen. DE TROBRIAND, commanding Camp Douglass, has prepared comfortable accommodations for BRIGHAM YOUNG at his own head-quarters, in anticipation of his (BRIGHAM'S) arrest. The High Mormons are exultingly confident that BRIGHAM will overcome all the charges against him before the law. No trouble is apprehended.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Bishop of Lichfield to Visit This Country—Movements of the Newcastle Workmen—Election of a New Lord Mayor of London.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Times' special dispatch from Versailles says that France declines to give to the other Powers the same favorable Customs clauses that are accorded to Germany under the recently negotiated treaty. On the other hand, a correspondent of the Times, writing from the same place, expresses the opinion that the negotiations with Germany will be protracted and fruitless. The London Times of today advises the citizens of New-York not to be disheartened by failures in their efforts to prove the guilt of the plunderers of the City, for it says the Judges who disgrace the Bench can no longer resist the tide of public feeling. Right Rev. GEORGE AUGUSTUS SELWYN, Bishop of Lichfield, has sailed for the United States to attend the Conference of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The Newcastle engineers on strike have proposed to submit the difficulty between themselves and their employers to arbitration. The men on strike in Newcastle have decided to hold a mass-meeting to-morrow. They have invited the working men of Sunderland and other places to send delegations to the meeting. The Liverymen of the City of London, in accordance with their annual custom for many centuries, assembled today in the Guild Hall, and elected Alderman SIR JOHN GIBBONS to the office of Lord Mayor for the ensuing civic year, which begins on the 9th of November. Mr. GIBBONS is a member of the Conservative Party and a successful merchant, and at present fills the position of senior member of the Court of Aldermen. The Duke of GRAMMONT is expected in London. Heavy gales continue, and several additional disasters to shipping and minor casualties are reported.

Right Hon. Mr. BRUCE, Home Secretary, in a public speech to-night, vindicated the foreign policy of the Government and declared that the concessions made to the United States in the Treaty of Washington were accompanied with no loss whatever of national honor.

FRANCE.

Success of the Municipal Loan in Paris—Trouble Between the German Garrison and the Inhabitants of Dijon—Progress of the Peace Treaty.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—M. DE BARRNEVILLE, the French Ambassador to the Papal Court, has arrived at Versailles. The loan of the City of Paris has been taken. The subscriptions were more than thirteen times the amount. Several conflicts have taken place within the past few days between the French citizens and the German garrison of Dijon. The town is intensely excited over these unfortunate occurrences.

VERSAILLES, Sept. 29.—M. LAMBRECHT, the Minister of Commerce, has informed the Committee of the Assembly, who have control of Legislative affairs during the recess, that the negotiations with Germany are making fair progress. The rumor that evidences of a Bonapartist conspiracy have been discovered prove to be unfounded.

M. DROUYN DE L'HUYS has been appointed Ambassador of France at Vienna. The German Generals refuse to evacuate the Department of the Oise until they are officially informed that the third half milliard of the indemnity has been paid. The Minister of Foreign Affairs has referred the matter to Prince BISMARCK.

Wholesome Effect of the Kuklux Convictions—Pennsylvania Agricultural Statistics.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The United States District-Attorney for Kentucky telegraphs to Acting Attorney-General BURTOW, that the Kuklux convictions at Raleigh, N. C., are having an excellent moral effect in that State and are greatly aiding in the repression of outrages.

LAND ESTIMATES OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The total number of acres of improved land in Pennsylvania, by the census of last year, is found to be 11,515,965, of unimproved 6,478,235. The present cash value of farms is $1,043,481,582. Value of farming implements and machinery, $35,658,196, while the total estimated value of all farm products for the year preceding that in which the census was taken was $183,946,027. The total amount of wages paid in the productions of agriculture, including the value of board, was $23,181,944. These last two items are the results of the new inquiries which were placed in the schedules by the amendments to the law, and bear upon questions which have heretofore been involved in great doubt. Statisticians and political economists have endeavored to achieve approximate estimates of these facts, but their figures have been arbitrary, forced, and necessarily wide of the mark. The results achieved by this census will furnish the first reliable data on these heads.

PERSONAL.

Secretary ROBESON will make two speeches in the Ohio campaign during next week. The points are not yet selected. Senator CAMERON, who is here, speaks hopefully of the political prospects in Pennsylvania.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis and Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30—1 A. M.—The area of high barometer, which was Thursday night over the Mississippi Valley, has extended eastward, and now covers the entire country east of the Rocky Mountains, the highest pressure being in Tennessee and Kentucky. The pressure began to fall on Friday afternoon in the North-west, and partially cloudy and clear weather are reported, the cloudiness being confined to Southern Florida and northern New-England, also to the Rocky Mountain stations. Fresh north-west winds continue in the Middle and Eastern States, north-east winds in the Gulf States, and increasing south-easterly winds from the Ohio valley north-westward. The temperature has risen over the latter region, and fallen slightly on the lower Lakes and middle Atlantic Coast.

PROBABILITIES.

The high barometer will probably continue with clear and pleasant weather, east of the Mississippi, and falling barometer with increasing south-easterly winds and cloudiness north of Kansas and Missouri. A storm of some severity will probably advance upon Minnesota and Nebraska by Saturday night.

Recovery of a Large Amount of Stolen Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—BUENVENTURA PERDA, alleged to be one of the Spanish soldiers who robbed the Spanish Army Pay-master of $300,000 in Cuba last Winter, gave up $40,000 in drafts to Chief of Police CROWLEY, Detective LEES, and Spanish Consul MARTIN, on the 15th of this month, alleging that he had been robbed of a large part of the remainder of his share of the plunder by his servant in Chicago, and lost a portion of the sum in speculation in this city PERDA now sues the officers and Consul MARTIN for the money, asserting that it was wrongfully taken from him by them.

The party leave on Friday for Salt Lake City, and will go through Idaho to Southern Oregon.

GENERAL POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

Comments of the Republican Press Upon Its Action and Nominations.

From the Albany Evening Journal.

The session of the State Convention was unusually prolonged because of the controversy relating to reorganization in New-York. No possible decision would have been satisfactory to all. Even the medium course, which contemplated the avoidance of any special discrimination between the two existing organizations, and only proposed reorganization and consolidation out of both from this date and under the authority of the State Convention—even this would not have been acceptable to the few who wanted their own extreme or nothing.

It is true that if the Convention could have seen its way clear to some such conclusion, it would have been so manifestly liberal and so clearly prompted by the sincerest spirit of conciliation that it would have left not even a shadow of a shade of excuse for any complaint. Nor is there now any justification for refusing to accept the action. The majority of the Convention approved the action of the State Committee. It had the power not only to confirm that action, but to exclude the delegation thus decided to be irregular. It refrained from this exercise of its strength, and, while ratifying the reorganization, freely and unhesitatingly admitted both delegations to the Convention. On the other hand it is claimed that it might, without an explicit expression upon the question of past authority and regularity, have accomplished the result which all good men admit to be so important—the purification of the party organization from Tammany influence—by future action whose entire validity and propriety few would presume to contest.

But both sides appealed to the Convention, and its decision will be accepted as authoritative and conclusive. The issue was carried to that body, which is the highest tribunal of the party, and its judgment closes the question. For ourselves, we should have received any determination with equal readiness, and we have no doubt whatever that the great mass of Republicans—intelligent, rational and patriotic as they are—will accept this decision in the same spirit of loyal devotion to the highest interests of the party. Even those who sympathized with the Greeley Committee will bow to the decision now that it has been rendered. There is no other course for an honorable Republican. The supreme authority of the State Convention is undisputed. The State Committee, as the custodian of the party's welfare, determined upon reorganization. Whatever differences of opinion may prevail as to the validity of that proceeding, the ratification of the sovereign tribunal puts its beyond the realm of discussion. It had the right to confirm the past as it had the right to determine the future, and every man who is devoted to Republican principles will cordially acquiesce.

That this is the spirit prevailing even amid some disappointments is plainly apparent. Only the delegates representing the Greeley Committee and a few other contestants declined to participate in the subsequent action, and they will support the ticket. Others from St. Lawrence and elsewhere who had sustained their claims announced their adherence to the determination of the Convention. To take any different course would be to betray the principles of the party, and help those who would despoil the State and ruin the honor of the country. No earnest Republican will hesitate for a moment as to his duty. All such will rally with zeal and enthusiasm for the redemption of New-York from the Democratic rulers who have so flagrantly misgoverned us.

Utica Herald.

The Republican State Convention closed its sessions at Syracuse, yesterday, after putting in nomination an admirable ticket, and stating clearly the principles and measures upon which Republicans are agreed. Of these we shall have occasion to speak hereafter in terms of approbation. The feature upon which especial attention is now fixed is the withdrawal of the Tousey-Andrews delegation from New-York, with a few sympathizers from the Convention. This secession was utterly inexcusable. Nothing occurred to palliate it. For, observe, nobody from New-York was excluded from the Convention. The seceders were accorded equal rights and privileges with the other delegation from the City. They went out because the Convention refused to accept their policy and obey their dictation.

Seneca Falls Courier.

We have not time, at this late hour, to review the situation—nor is it necessary. The plain facts are so eloquent that every true Republican will realize them, and take therefrom encouragement. It convinces us that the stolen coffers of Tammany are impotent to buy up the Republican Party as they have the Democratic Party. These minions of Tammany, who came in the guise of contesting delegates, threw off their disguise when they refused the offered compromise, and we now all know what they are and what they want—the rum of the party for the safety of TWEED, HALL, SWEENY & Co. They have failed—thanks to the fearlessness of the country representatives.

Elmira Advertiser.

We have only time to say this morning that the ticket placed in nomination yesterday by the Republican State Convention, is an unexceptionable one throughout, and will meet with the hearty indorsement of the entire Republican Party of the State. Every candidate named on it is a true and tried Republican, and worthy of the suffrages of his fellow-citizens of all parties. With proper work the ticket can be triumphantly elected, and, despite the little cloud of dissension which hovered over the Convention during the first day of its deliberations, we believe the political skies were never brighter in New-York than now for a glorious Republican victory in November. The resolutions of the Convention have the true ring, and are heartily indorsed by every Republican and right-thinking voter in the State. With an unexceptionable ticket and a sound platform, the Republicans of New-York have but to do their duty to rescue the State from the Tammany thieves, and place its interests once more in the hands of honest men, backed by a strong, honest and patriotic party.

Poughkeepsie Eagle.

Notwithstanding the fact that the opening scenes of the State Convention were characterized by much disorder, the conclusions reached in the ticket nominated and the platform adopted are such as will be approved by every true Republican in the State. We have not gone into a State contest for years with a better list of candidates than are now presented. All that is needed to secure their election is harmony in our own ranks. The corruptions and extravagance of the Democracy have reached such a pitch that they startle the honest men of all parties, and the dissensions among them are such as will give us a complete victory if we close up the ranks and go with united front into the contest.

Syracuse Journal.

The reorganization effected in the City of New-York has been a very exciting subject, and one involving complications and dangers. But it has been fairly met, and justly decided. The action of the State Committee was necessary and unavoidable, and the approval of it by a strong vote in the Convention shows that the Republicans of the interior commend and indorse the application of the prompt and decided measures which the existence of a serious evil required. The unseemly and violent demonstrations which disgraced the opening hours of the Convention, were supplemented by an act of secession for which there is no apology or justification. The decision of the tribunal, to whose judgment the merits of the New-York City controversy had been submitted, should be binding upon all the parties. In the approval of the course of the State Committee, the reorganization is established; provision is made for the representation in the new organization of all the Republican elements, upon terms of fairness and honor, without humiliation or injustice to any individuals, and the situation should be accepted by all interests, in which consummation alone can peace be maintained and victory assured.

Albany Express.

We went to Syracuse sanguine in the hope that all causes of difference among Republicans—at least so far as the present campaign is concerned—would be removed. We came away with the painful conviction that the bitterness between the rival factions has been increased rather than diminished by the course pursued in Convention. Nay, more than this. We came away convinced that the action of the majority was not the wisest that could have been taken.—and equally well satisfied that the course pursued by a portion of the minority was factious in the extreme. What has been done cannot be undone. Our present duty is to look carefully at the situation, and to govern ourselves and our future actions by that policy which shall seem wisest and best. To begin with, we have an excellent and unexceptionable ticket—one which cannot fail to commend itself to every Republican in the State not absolutely blinded by prejudice. Whatever their mistakes in other matters, the controlling majority acquitted themselves handsomely in this respect. In the second place, the resolutions adopted are such as will be accepted by Republicans of all shades of opinion. Thirdly, the issues between us and our political opponents are none the less clearly defined now than they were before the Convention met. There is now quite as much need for such municipal reform as will insure honest administration, as there was before the occurrence of the contest at Syracuse. For our own part, we shall give to the ticket our cordial and earnest support. And we call upon all who have heretofore reckoned themselves Republicans to come up manfully and earnestly to the work that is before us. Our first duty is to defeat the common enemy; and he is the best soldier who, while smarting under the consciousness that he has been unjustly dealt with by his official superiors—wounded, even, it may be, in the house of his friends—nevertheless goes loyally and courageously into action, and deals his blows against that enemy all the heavier. We have an abiding faith that the masses of our Republican voters will eventually see that full justice is done to all their servants.

Auburn Advertiser.

No true Republican that has the interests of the party at heart will fail to indorse the eminently sound and fair report of the committee, that should have commended itself to the Convention. It admitted both delegations from New-York, and provided for the reorganization of the committee, thus excluding both those who hold offices under the Federal Government, and under Tammany. This proposition was the fairest for both sides that could have been presented, favoring neither faction or wing, and calculated to relieve the party from the control of either faction of officeholders. It was submitted to a fair vote of the Convention, and was concurred in by a fair majority. What excuse, then, was there for the withdrawal of any Republican delegates from the Convention? What honest Republican could find any excuse for seceding from the Convention under these circumstances? We can conceive of none. It was the exhibition of a spirit to rule the party or ruin it. And when the Fenton men went out under these circumstances—unless the same was done in the heat of the moment, to be repented of speedily—the seceders have lost all claims to Republicanism, and the sooner the party is rid of such men the better for it. It is impossible to predict at this time what the result will be. If two tickets are put in the field we may be defeated in this campaign; but it will only serve to unite and strengthen the party, and will render our success certain hereafter. The State must and will be redeemed, with the help of Fenton men if possible—without them if we must.

Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

All can see, plainly enough, that a bolt was what Mr. GREELEY'S friends were after, no matter how it was to be effected. We pass over their disgraceful interruptions and attempts at bullying the Convention, which threatened at first to result in a general row. When order was at length secured, it was not long before the Convention demonstrated its willingness, its anxiety even, to go to an extreme length in order to conciliate the malcontents. * * * This was, certainly, a concession to the main objection raised by the malcontents against the present State Committee, namely, that the Federal office-holders in the Metropolis have been "running the machine;" but, at the same time, it ruled out those Republicans who hold offices of emolument subject to the control of the Tammany Ring. Whether this last condition had anything to do with the subsequent action of Mr. GREELEY'S friends we do not undertake to say. All we know is, that they refused to accept the most fair proposition for a settlement of their pretended grievances; that a minority of the Committee reported in favor of admitting the Greeley delegates only; and that, because the Convention refused to adopt the minority report and accepted the majority report, some of Mr. GREELEY'S professed friends left the Convention, and assumed to hold one of their own. This action needs no comment. It is pleasant to see, however, by the later reports coming to us while we are writing, that, in their exceeding eagerness to make mischief, the bolters are likely to defeat their cherished purpose. They invited their friends, the delegates from the country districts, upon whom the Tribune has been calling for support at the Convention, to bolt with them and go over to a Greeley meeting. But the country delegates did not come when they did call.

On the whole, therefore, we do not anticipate that any serious mischief will result from the disgraceful action of the bolting delegates. It is too early to review the action of the Convention, (which, indeed, is not completed by the hour when these remarks must be finished,) but we judge that the work has been well done, and that the ticket it presents will be heartily supported and triumphantly elected, notwithstanding anything that the rebellious friends of Mr. GREELEY may say or do.

Syracuse Standard.

We shall excite no element of faction, in the same spirit that we have opposed the injustice toward leading men of the party which has for some time been exhibited, and culminated in the action of the Convention. The ticket is a good one, and upon the platform all can unite. We support the ticket and indorse the platform, and shall soon give reasons for this course, which, we trust, will be convincing to all our friends, however much their feelings have been aggravated by the despotic measures which the Convention adopted. "A long pull, and a strong pull, and a pull altogether," and the doom of Tammany Hall will be sealed.

Rochester Democrat.

The ticket, as thus made up, is a representative one. Its nomination means the consolidation of the ranks of the party, the initiation of a policy of retrenchment in the administration of the canals, and determined hostility to Tammany Hall. The resolutions give emphatic expression to the estimation in which the administration of President Grant is held; the views cherished by the Republican Party upon national affairs, and the State issues that party presents to the people in the present election. The campaign is to be an aggressive one. We must push the battle front close up to the intrenchments of the enemy. We must lay aside all differences and stand shoulder to shoulder until we have wrested the State from the blighting influences of Tammany. This can be done, and we have abiding confidence in the fidelity and determination of the Republican Party that it will be.

Official Responsibility—Remarks of Gov. Hoffman.

Gov. HOFFMAN was serenaded while in Warsaw, Wyoming County, last week, and made a response which we find reported in the Western New-Yorker. We quote this paragraph:

"One thing there is as a people we may be proud of, and that is our determination to promote every great interest of the people; and we can understand, and I hope we do all understand, another thing, that while in this country of ours there is, perhaps, less than in any other, respect for those who occupy positions of responsibility, authority, and power, there are at least times when the people can forget partisan and personal hostility, and unite in a common effort to sustain a public officer when they believe he tries to do his duty to the whole. [Applause.] And the one idea which I would like to press upon you, and which I wish could be pressed upon people everywhere, living as we do in times of great excitement—a restless, moving and excitable people—I wish the people would understand, more than they do, the trials, the responsibilities, the cares and anxieties, which attend on a man upon whom they have conferred what are called public honors. I think if they knew them and realized them better than they do, there would be many times when they would be apt to judge more calmly, more leniently, more kindly, of the acts of those in authority, whether they be on one side or the other, than they do now; and, my friends, as it is the province of those who by the voice of the people are placed in positions of public authority to guard the interests of the people as well as they can, to secure as far as they can an honest, faithful, economical administration of government, so it is the duty of the people, when once their choice has been expressed, it is their duty by every means in their power, to sustain those who are trying to do their duty under many difficulties."

The Kuklux Trials in North Carolina.

Alluding to certain Democratic slanders respecting the jury before whom the Kuklux trials have been held in Raleigh, N. C., the Era of that city says:

"The jury that sat on SHOTWELL'S case was composed of eight Republicans and four Democrats, and was as honest a jury as ever was impaneled. Its verdict, in convicting eight and acquitting three of the prisoners, notwithstanding the fact that there was very strong evidence against those acquitted—shows how honest and how scrupulous the jury was. Not a single human being who heard the testimony has been heard to say that the verdict was not both just and righteous. And notwithstanding the venire consists of thirty-six, the same jury that tried SHOTWELL and others has been retained by the counsel for the defense, with, perhaps, the change of a man or two, in every subsequent case.

A Southern Opinion of Tammany.

From the Memphis (Tenn.) Appeal.

The direst calamities that ever befell the Democratic Party had origin in the villainous corruptness of New-York politicians. It was the World that struck the blow that staggered the party in 1868, just prior to the Presidential election. It was the power of Tammany and of the World that made BELMONT, a slave of bondholders, of whom he is chief, manager of the Democratic Party. It was the World that constructed a bridge by which the party could go over to CHASE, and in abandoning its creed lost half its vital force. Happily, the structure has fallen in everywhere. It is the World again, and hers infamous Ring, called Tammany, which now degrades the name of Democracy by its villainous practices. It was the World and its satellites that substituted SEYMOUR for a PENDLETON, HENDRICKS or THURMAN, in 1868. Have not Tammany and its organ done enough? Should not the West assert its power? The West has the numbers and moral force, and the East money. Shall the party and people be forever enslaved by gold? If Tammany, BELMONT and the World be exponents of Democracy, there are no Democrats in the South, and it occurs to us that the yoke we have worn so patiently should be left by the wayside. For a week past, our voluminous telegraphic reports have been an endless recital of villainies exposed and knaveries practiced by a ring that uses the ignorant rabble to perpetuate its supremacy. Tammany is not the embodiment of Democracy. It was money that instigated the blow that was dealt FRANK BLAIR in 1868, and it is the rottenness of these masters of the New-York mob, wearing the garb of Democracy that they may win popular confidence, which today disgusts mankind.

MR. BOUTWELL IN CLEVELAND.

The Democratic Attitude on the Amendments Exhibited—Financial Policies of the Two Parties Contrasted.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 29.—The following is an abstract of Mr. BOUTWELL'S address delivered here this evening:

Mr. BOUTWELL took up the first two of the three propositions read by him last night in Cincinnati:

1. The Democratic Party does not accept the Constitutional amendments as right in themselves, although, as we affirm, they are the only national guarantee for the principles on which the war was prosecuted, and the only security for the rights of four millions of human beings, emancipated on the 1st of January, 1863.

2. The Democratic Party proposes to annul the banking system, and to eliminate from the tariff system the quality of protection wherever it can be found, and this without regard to the effect upon the business and prosperity of the country.

He next examined the resolutions of the Democratic Convention of Ohio, and continued: Two facts are clear; first, that the Convention denounces the means by which the amendments were adopted, and, secondly, that the amendments are dependent for their efficacy upon the legislation of Congress. In one particular only does the Convention express its approval of what is contained in the amendments, and that approval is found in the sixth resolution, in which they advise universal amnesty under the Fourteenth Amendment. On this Mr. BOUTWELL shows that Congress has already relieved a large number of persons, and it will soon remove the disabilities of all but a small class. The number who will be deprived of their civil rights for a long period of time is very small; but that exceptions should not be made against persons who held high civil and military positions in the Government of the United States, and afterward became specially responsible for the rebellion, and for the manner of carrying it on, but that they should be admitted at once to all the privileges of citizens of the United States, is a view of public duty which is not likely to be accepted by the men who performed service in the field on the part of the Union, or by the friends of those who sacrificed their lives for the country.

The fourth section of the Fourteenth Amendment declares the public debt, including pensions and bounties for services in suppressing the insurrection. It also puts it out of the power of the nation, or of any State, to assume or pay any part of the obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of slaves. These guarantees are essential to the peace of the country and to the preservation of the public credit. It is worthy of notice that the Democratic Convention of this State had not a word to say in behalf of these propositions. But the fifth section is the one to which that party entertains the most serious objection. In that section power is given Congress to enforce by appropriate legislation all the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment, and it is by virtue of this section chiefly that the authority of Congress has been exercised for the suppression of the Kuklux organization in the South. Until recently the existence of such an organization was denied, but the legal investigation closed all controversy on that point, while the fact has been established that their purpose has been to defeat the operation of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution, and to re-establish, as far as possible, the exclusive authority of the whites in political affairs. These events demonstrate the importance of the section which gives to Congress power to inforce the provisions of the article. While the existence of the power is ample for every exigency, its exercise will depend always upon the will of Congress.

We are thus brought directly to the consideration of the question whether guarantees of the most sacred rights of citizens should be intrusted to the care and legislative will of men who deny the wisdom of the guarantees, who denounce the means by which they were obtained, and who do not hesitate to declare that they will construe this authority strictly as against the purposes and objects for which it was conferred? On the other hand, the Republican Party originated these amendments, secured their adoption by Congress and their ratification by the requisite number of States, and, with the exception of the Thirteenth Amendment, by which the institution of slavery was abolished, without any aid, so far as I can remember, from any representative man of the Democratic Party.

Mr. BOUTWELL next takes up the expressions of the Democratic Convention on the banking system of the country, and shows the value of the national banks to the country, mentioning incidentally that without compulsion they took $100,000,000 of the new loan, surrendering an equal amount of six per cent. bonds. The declaration in favor of a "strictly revenue tariff," he next notices and says: Aside from all theories, and supreme over all doctrines of political economy, is the great fact that vast mechanical and manufacturing interests have been built up in this country by the legislation of the last ten years. What can be done, what ought to be done, and what I trust will be done, is to readjust the tariff system, looking to a moderate reduction of the revenues and the removal of such features as appear to be objectionable. I may say that officers of the Treasury Department are now engaged in a careful examination of the tariff laws, and are preparing therefrom a list of articles used in the arts and manufactures, or which are articles of necessity or comfort, and that do not enter into competition with articles manufactured or produced in the United States. Accompanying the latter list will be furnished such information as they may be able to obtain, as to the extent to which the articles named in that list enter into competition with domestic products.

The difference between Democratic and Republican policies on the subject of the tariff, Mr. BOUTWELL shows in their views in the matter of iron. He says: Assume that foreign pig-iron, free of duty, may be delivered at Cleveland, with a reasonable profit to the manufacturer, and the cost of the transportation paid, at $20 per ton. Assume, also, that the cost of manufacturing pig-iron in this country, and delivering it at Cleveland, would be $25 per ton. In order that the largest amount of revenue should be derived from duties on pig-iron, it would be essential to place the duty just at that point which would prevent the manufacture and sale of domestic iron, for every ton of domestic iron manufactured and sold would, under the circumstances, diminish the revenue just to the extent of the duty which otherwise might have been collected upon it if it had been imported from another country. The Democratic Party would, therefore, place the duty at $4 or $4 50 a ton, just low enough to prevent the manufacture in the United States, and high enough to secure the largest revenue upon the imported article. The duty being thus fixed, the manufacture of domestic iron must cease, or the cost of producing it must be diminished. His only recourse is to reduce the wages of the laborer. The effect, therefore, is to bring the pressure of the competition between the manufacture of the domestic article and the manufacture of the foreign article directly upon the laborers engaged in the manufacture of domestic iron. If they yield to the domestic manufacturer to such an extent that he can compete with the importer, the policy marked out by the Democratic Party would lead to a further reduction of duty, because every ton manufactured in the United States diminishes the revenue just to the extent of the duty which might have been collected upon the imported article. The result of this policy is that laborers in the manufacture of iron would find their wages curtailed, and they would finally be obliged to seek employment elsewhere. Upon the same state of facts the policy of the Republican Party would be to fix the duty at such a rate—something, of course, greater than the difference between the cost of the foreign and domestic article—as would enable the domestic manufacturer to pay fair wages to the laborers, and obtain a fair remuneration for the capital invested; and when, by domestic competition, or by improvements in machinery, or the diminished cost of the raw material, the difference between the actual cost of the foreign article and of the domestic article should be reduced, the duty on the foreign article would be proportionately reduced also.

Mr. BOUTWELL favors examination and reasonable tests as to fitness in the civil service, but opposes any increase of life-tenure offices. As to the prosperity of the country, he holds that the poor are growing rich and the rich richer, and not the reverse, and he cannot doubt that the past five years constitute the most prosperous period in the nation's life, while he foresees even greater prosperity than is now enjoyed, as a result of cheaper communication between the West and the East. After alluding to the political growth and standing of the country, he closed by stating in three propositions what he thought most essential to the welfare of the country:

1. Provide for public education, and, without fear, meet, discuss, and settle every question of business, labor and government.

2. Maintain the Constitutional amendments, and secure legislation calculated to make the guarantees effective for all.

3. Preserve the public faith, as becomes a great nation which must answer to itself and to the world, in every generation and in every age, for what it now does.

The Canvass in Ohio—The Governor and the Legislature.

The election of Gen. NOYES, the popular Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio, is regarded by the Cincinnati Gazette as morally certain, the only question being the majority he shall receive. The Gazette appeals to the Republicans to make it 30,000, saying they can if they will. Of the struggle for the control of the Legislature the Gazette speaks thus:

"Ohio is, beyond question, very largely Republican. It would, therefore, be mortifying to see another Democrat elected from this Republican State to the United States Senate. It is possible, however, to carry the State and lose the Legislature. This occurred in 1867, and again almost in 1869. The error should not be repeated in 1871. In Cuyahoga County there is a Republican division, which may result in a loss of two members, the opposition ticket in that county having two Democrats out of the seven. In some other districts there is also dissaffection. In Hamilton County there would have been a sweeping majority but for the failure of the nominating convention to come up to public expectation. Two or three mistakes were made that are a weight upon the whole ticket. This is relieved somewhat, however, by the very objectionable ticket put in nomination by the Democratic Party, and now we shall, notwithstanding the disaffection referred to elect at least twelve of the thirteen legislative candidates. This will make sure of the Legislature, provided Republicans in other parts of the State do their whole duty. There are many doubtful districts that may, with effective work between now and the day of election, be carried by Republicans. Over confidence and lukewarmness are the two dangers to be avoided."

POLITICAL NOTES.

CHAUNCEY TURNER is the Democratic candidate for Assembly in Clinton County.

The Democrats of Tioga have nominated GIDEON O. CHASE, of Smithboro, for Assembly.

Gov. JAMES, of Nebraska, estimates the majority against the new constitution at 800 to 1,000 votes.

Gov. FAIRCHILD and Congressman G. W. HAZELTON are to address a series of Republican meetings in Wisconsin in October.

Hon. HENRY S. RANDALL has been elected delegate to the State Convention by the Democrats of Cortlandt County.

Mr. JOSEPH COULT, of Newton, has consented to serve on the New-Jersey Republican State Committee.

The Republican Convention of the First Senatorial District has been postponed till Oct. 10. It is to be held in Jamaica.

The annual Convention of the State Colored Labor Union is to be held in Troy on Wednesday, Oct. 11.

Ex-Gov. HORATIO SEYMOUR has been elected delegate to the Democratic State Convention from the Fourth District of Oneida County.

The Tompkins County Republican Convention declared itself in favor of the nomination of Hon. JOHN H. SELKREG for State Senator.

Hon. M. C. HAMILTON, of Texas, has written a letter bitterly denouncing Gov. DAVIS' election order as a direct attack upon civil liberty. He favors an appeal to the Legislature if the Governor refuses to modify it.

The Ohio Democrats are laboring to carry the State Legislature, that they may elect a United States Senator and have the new apportionment of Congressional Districts in their hands. Apparently they are not confident of success, but they are working hard.

Hon. RANSOM BALCOM was unanimously nominated for re-election as Justice of the Supreme Court for the Sixth District, by the Republican Convention, which was held in Binghamton yesterday.

The Democrats of the First District of Dutchess County have appointed JOHN H. OTIS as delegate to their State Convention, and FLORENCE HUFCUTT to the Judicial Convention; the latter with instructions to vote for Hon. JOSEPH F. BARNARD.

The Allegany County Republicans had a lively Convention, and nominated the following ticket: J. S. GREEN, for County Judge; RUFUS SCOTT, for District-Attorney; HIRAM DIMMICK, for Justice of Sessions. The county delegates to the Senatorial Convention favor the nomination of Gen. JAMES WOOD.

The Atlanta True Georgian frankly admits that the defeat of the Democracy in the late elections and the New-York frauds have given the party a stunning blow, and says that if the party hopes ever to win a victory again, it must free itself from the smell of secession and revolution, which still clings to its garments, and honestly proclaim its adhesion to all the results of the war.

Twenty members of the State Temperance Central Committee of Pennsylvania, appointed by the May Convention, have published an address repudiating the action of a portion of the Committee in holding a convention in August, and nominating a ticket—thus, as they say, precipitating a movement upon the political field, without a constituency, without funds, and without an object worthy the risk involved.

The Democrats of Schoharie County have nominated PETER COUCHMAN for FRIDAY, Sept. 29—P. M.

Money is working easier among the Brokers, and today there was, perhaps, more business on 6 ₱ cent. per annum than on 7 ₱ cent., and there were more exceptional transactions at 5 ₱ cent. The market has evidently adjusted itself to the unfavorable Bank return of last week, and the indications are that it will be favorably influenced by the return to-morrow of the averages of the present week. As a rule the rate for Money at Bank to mercantile dealers is 7 ₱ cent., and most of the Banks decline to lend on Stocks better than 7 ₱ cent., so that the bulk of business with the Brokers is done with private Banking establishments and other outside lenders, who vary their terms with the look of the demand from day to day. It is believed that the Bank return of Saturday Afternoon will show much better in the relative average of lawful Money to Deposits and Circulation than last week.

The Gold Room, as reported in our last paper, advanced the price of Gold to 115 late on Thursday. Today the market was ⅛@¼ ₱ cent. weaker, and the cash Gold easy. The condition of the Foreign Exchanges is decidedly against a rise in Gold, and the chief support the market has is from the Customs demand. This demand will exceed the Treasury sale of $2,000,000 yesterday by about $1,500,000 for the week. The demand today fell below $400,000. For the five days of the week the receipts from this source into the Treasury Office here is about $8,200,000. Private telegrams from London today confirm our report of yesterday that the Gold shipments to New-York are comparatively insignificant. The largest sum reported by any one steamer is £70,000, or about $350,000.

On the Stock Exchange the Public Funds are quiet as to actual business, and firm in the bidding prices. The Southern State Bonds are better for Tennessees and South Carolinas. In the Railway Stocks the temper of dealings is very decidedly better this Afternoon than yesterday, and the remark holds good in reference to Western Telegraph and Pacific Mail. It is rumored on the Street, and the signs on the Exchange strengthen the opinion, that one or two veteran operators like Mr. DANIEL DREW, have reversed their recent bearish tactics and gone long of certain of the Western stocks, such as North-west and Rock Island, while the Bull cliques in Western Telegraph, Pacific Mail, Lake Shore, &c., have picked up fresh courage from this circumstance, in connection with the improved appearance of the money market. The railroads in the close vicinity of this City are generally firm today. New-Jersey Central, New-York Central and Hudson, Delaware and Lackawanna, and Morris and Essex, are all in demand. The business over these and most of the Western lines is reported good, with the near prospect of increased activity in freight earnings in October. This report is qualified in some measure by rumors of cheap, if not unremunerative, rates of business, on account of competition between rival roads to and from the sea-board.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

☞ FIRST MORTGAGE SINKING FUND LAND-GRANT BONDS OF THE ST. JOSEPH AND DENVER CITY RAILROAD COMPANY,

IN DENOMINATIONS OF $1,000, $500, AND $100, can now be had from the undersigned or through the principal banks and bankers of the United States. The attention of investors is invited to the merits of these bonds, secured by a first and only mortgage on the road, equipments, franchises, and property of a trunk line of railroad which will shorten the distance between New-York and San Francisco some 230 miles, and in addition the mortgage to secure the bonds covers a land-grant of 1,500,000 acres of the most fertile land in the West, which is prohibited from being sold at less than four ($4) dollars per acre by the terms of the mortgage deed, and according to the present market price of the Illinois Central Company's lands is worth $18,750,000. This loan was originally for $5,500,000, but has been largely reduced by subscriptions of actual investors. The remaining balance of the loan is offered at 97½ and accrued interest, but the right is reserved to advance the price at any time, with out notice.

The bonds have thirty years to run; bear 8 per cent. interest, payable in New-York, London or Frankfort-on-the-Main, at the option of the holder, without notice, free of taxes. BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ARE PAYABLE IN GOLD. They are Coupon Bonds, but can be registered with the coupons ON, or can be registered with the coupons OFF, and interest paid to registered owner. Interest payable Aug. 15 and Feb. 15. A liberal sinking fund, formed from the entire land sales, in payment for which the bonds will be received at par and accrued interest, provides for the early extinguishment of this loan.

Trustees—Farmers' Loan and Trust Company.

These bonds offer favorable inducements to parties desiring to fund their Five-Twenties or other high-priced securities.

In converting Five-Twenties the investors realize 17 per cent. profit on the principal; 2 per cent. per annum excess of interest; and at the same time get a perfect security.

Maps, circulars, documents, and full information furnished on application.

Though acting as agents for the sale of this loan, our firm buy and sell in their regular business the bonds of the St. Joseph and Denver City Railroad Company, those of the Eastern Division being now quoted at 102 and accrued interest. These were originally placed by us at 97½.

TANNER & CO.,
Bankers, No. 11 Wall-st.

☞ FIVE-TWENTIES CAN BE FUNDED with us into the best Railroad Bonds. We recommend those of the BONDOUT AND OSWEGO COMPANY for three reasons: 1. These Bonds are safe. The road is near this City. Every investor can travel over it for himself. The net earnings of one-half of the line pay at present 10 per cent. on all the bonds which will be issued on the whole road. 2. By conversion, as we recommend, the investor adds 25 per cent. to his capital. 3. He also adds 48 1-3 per cent. to his income. EDWARD HAIGHT & CO.,
No. 9 Wall-st.

☞ LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE RAILROAD CONSOLIDATED SEVEN PER CENT. FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS for sale at ninety-two and one-half and accrued interest.

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, No. 59 Wall-st.

☞ JACKSON COUNTY, MISSOURI, 8 PER CENT. BONDS, For sale by W. P. CONVERSE & CO., No. 54 Pine-st.

☞ BURLINGTON, CEDAR RAPIDS AND Minnesota Seven per Cent. Gold Sinking Fund Bonds or sale at 90 and interest by HENRY CLEWS & CO., No. 32 Wall-st., New-York.

Southern Flour has been in good request at firmer prices, with sales since our last of 2,400 bbls., at $6 35@7 50 for ordinary to very good, and $7 50@10 for very good to very choice Extra. ₱ bbl. Rye Flour has been in good demand at $4 25@5 50 ₱ bbl.; sales, 500 bbls. Corn-meal continues in fair request at $3 30@3 85 for White and Yellow Western, $3 85@3 75 for Jersey, $4 10 for Marsh's Gloria, and $4 10@4 15 for Brandywine. ₱ bbl.; sales, 900 bbls.

GRAIN—Under the more favorable foreign reports, Wheat has been in quite urgent request, mostly for export, on good part, to arrive, at an advance of 3c.@4c. ₱ bushel, closing strong and buoyant for prime samples, of which there were very scant offerings reported. The scarcity of freight room was against the export movement. Sales have been reported since our last of 223,000 bushels, all told, chiefly afloat and to arrive, including White Canada, in bond, at $1 75; White Western at $1 68@1 82, chiefly at $1 75@1 76, the latter mostly for full boat-loads, to arrive; Red and Amber Western at $1 60@1 72, chiefly at $1 62@1 65 for fair to very good New Red; $1 67@$1 70 for New Amber do., afloat and to arrive; $1 72 for fancy Amber do., in iota; No. 1 Spring at $1 58 for straight, with $1 60 reported bid for very choice old, from store; No. 2 Spring, $1 55@1 57 for straight to prime samples here; Soft do. at $1 43@1 53; White Genesee, $1 74@1 82; Red and Amber do. at $1 64@$1 72; Red and Amber Southern at $1 62@$1 63 ₱ bushel.....Corn has been quite brisk at an advance of 1c.@2c. ₱ bushel, with bulk of the dealings in Mixed Western, in store and afloat, chiefly in store. The trade and speculative inquiry has been active, and the export call fair; sales have been reported since our last of 241,000 bushels at 75c.@75½c. for New Mixed Western, afloat; 74c.@74½c. mainly at 74c. for do., in store; 73c.@74½c. for steamer grades; 76½c.@77c. for Yellow Western; 75c.@77c. for White Western....Rye has been in better demand and quoted stronger in price, with sales reported of about 8,000 bushels Western at 92½c. ₱ bushel....Barley has been in some request at about former figures; 6,000 bushels poor Western were sold at 80c. ₱ bushel.... Barley-malt has been in demand at uniform quotations....Oats have been offered sparingly, and have been quoted stronger, but have been rather quiet. Sales have been reported since our last of 61,000 bushels at 51c.@51¼c. for New Mixed Western, afloat, and 49c.@49¼c. for do., in store; 48c.@50c. for New Black; 52c.@54c. for ordinary to choice New White Western and White Ohio.

FREIGHTS—Grain room has been in good request, and rates have shown more firmness, particularly in the berth line. Petroleum vessels were in moderate request, but not offered freely, and were held with the views of shippers, checking business. In most other lines the movements were not important, and quotations were essentially unaltered. For Liverpool, we reported engagements since our last have been 115,000 bushels Grain, by sail, at 10d. for Corn, and 10½d. for Wheat, mostly Corn at the quoted rate; 3,800 bushels Wheat, by do., in ship's bags, at 10½d.; 23,000 bushels Corn, by steam, at 9½d. in bulk; 28,000 bushels Wheat, by do., (including room for 15,500 bushels relet) at 11d.; 15,500 bushels Grain, by do., at 10¾d. for Corn and 11d. for Wheat ₱ bushel; 200 bbls. Resin, by sail, at 2s. 6d. ₱ ton; 130 hhds. Tallow and 40 tons Oil-cake, by do., at 30s.; 3,100 boxes Cheese, by steam, at 45s.; 430 pkgs. Lard, Bacon, &c., by do., at 40s. ₱ ton; 900 bales Cotton, in lots, by do., at ¼d. ₱ lb.; also an American ship of 971 tons register, and coal tonnage of 974 tons register, (the latter chartered yesterday, as already reported,) placed on the berth for general cargo, taking nearly full cargoes of Grain, which have been included in the reported engagements, as above. For London, 7,800 bushels Wheat, by sail, at 10¾d. ₱ bushel; also, the British steam-ship Helvetia, placed on the berth for general cargo by E. E. MORGAN'S SONS. For Glasgow, 7,800 bushels Grain, by sail, at 11d. ₱ bushel. For the United Kingdom, a Norwegian bark, of 335 tons register, (to arrive,) with about 2,200 quarters Grain, from Philadelphia, on private terms. For the United Kingdom and the Continent, an American ship, of 1,306 tons register, with general cargo, on private terms. For Cork and orders, a Norwegian brig, of 164 tons register, with 1,000 quarters Grain, at 8s. 9d., with the usual addition of 10 ₱ cent. to the Continent. For Havre, by steam, 200 boxes Bacon, 150 tcs. Lard, and 100 bbls. Tallow at 45s. ₱ ton. For Antwerp, 450 tcs. Lard at 40s. ₱ ton; also a British bark of 560 tons register, with general cargo, on private terms. For Bremen, equal to 2,100 tcs. Lard, 100 tons Tallow, and about 40,000 gallons Oil at 27s. 6d. ₱ ton. For Gibraltar and orders, an Italian brig of about 270 tons register, rumored with 2,000 bbls. Petroleum, on the basis of 8s. 3d. ₱ bbl., but the rumor was not confirmed. For Venice direct, a German brig of 280 tons register, with 500 bbls. Petroleum at 7s. ₱ bbl., and 6,500 cases do. at 35c., gold, ₱ case.

The New-York Times,
DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY.

This journal is now thoroughly identified with the greatest political necessity of the hour—uncompromising warfare against all forms of corruption, whether in national or local government. For years past the TIMES has been exposing the demoralizing schemes of self-interested politicians, and its recent warfare upon the Tammany Democrats has been received with universal approval. It has adhered to the pledge given in its original prospectus, more than twenty years ago, that the public should be truly represented, and their interests faithfully guarded through its columns. Its record has been pure and honorable, and the highest aim of its proprietors is to render it more and more worthy of its past history, and of the confidence which the public repose in it. Two out of three of the original proprietors still direct its policy, and guide it on all public questions. They purpose that the TIMES shall continue to keep clear of all narrow and unworthy influences and cliques, and aim to represent the great body of the public, as distinguished from personal factions. It occupies a perfectly independent position, and is free to speak the truth on all subjects and about all men. Its greatly increased circulation throughout the country adds to its power and influence. It will continue to be a faithful exponent of Republican principles, and advocate with untiring energy every cause which tends to further the welfare of the people.

The utmost care will be devoted to gathering political news from special sources during the Presidential canvass. This department of the paper will be unusually full and trustworthy. Renewed enterprise will be exhibited in every department of the paper, and large space will be devoted to reports of speeches made during elections, or on other important political occasions.

A very full summary of news, and many general articles of igreat interest, are published in the Semi-weekly editions; and in the Weekly edition there is an unabridged report of the proceedings at the Farmers' Club, an excellent summary of political information, and a great variety of matter suitable for family reading.

The NEW-YORK TIMES is pre-eminently a family paper, all objectionable advertisements being rigidly excluded; and it has a constantly increasing circulation among the most respectable classes of the community.

The statement made by the Sun, that the infamous article in a vile newspaper supported by the Ring, encouraging the laborers to commit a riot, was "inspired" by HENRY HILTON, is confirmed by a letter from Mr. THOMAS C. FIELDS, published in another column. We believed from the first that the article in question was part of a deliberate attempt to provoke a breach of the peace in this City, and that gave to the production of an unprincipled miscreant its only importance. It is now absolutely stated by Mr. FIELDS that HILTON "suggested" the article in question—consequently, should there be any disturbance to-night, the public will know whom they have to thank for it. HILTON is Mr. A. T. STEWART'S right-hand man and confidential adviser; it would be interesting to know if Mr. STEWART approves of this particular work of his friend.

True and False Friends of the "Working Man."

The leaders of Tammany have been in the habit of getting all their most profitable work done by firms which made dishonest contracts. The working men gained nothing by these transactions. The "Bosses" pocketed all the plunder.

This system will be abolished whenever the Tweed and Hall faction can be got rid of. Working men will then get the money which is voted for public works—it will not be intercepted by Boss TWEED, or ANDREW J. GARVEY, or INGERSOLL, or KEYSER. Can any intelligent working man be so easily misled as to believe that he can derive any benefit from a system which makes a few men rich, and leaves the bulk of the people poorer than ever? Is it an advantage to the little fish to be swallowed up by the big ones?

Some of the working men in the City departments say they have not been paid since last July. Well, whose fault is that? Are the reformers, who have only just got one foot in, to be blamed for it? Or should the blame fall on the men who have drawn the money intended for the laborers' wages, and spent it in other ways?

As an earnest of the change for the better in the working men's circumstances which will be produced when HALL and his gang are swept away, read the following news from yesterday's papers:

THE RING PRINTING-OFFICE TO LOSE THE PUBLIC PRINTING.

Heretofore the printing of the City and County Government, since the organization of the New-York Printing Company, has been almost entirely monopolized by that Company, and large sums of money having been expended for this purpose, it is the intention of Deputy Controller GREEN to distribute this work, so far as relates to the printing of the Finance Department more particularly, to other printing establishments in this City, and he has therefore caused the following letter to be sent in reply to a communication received by him from the Journeymen Printers' Co-operative Association:

Messrs. John Vincent, Nelson W. Young, and others, Directors Journeymen Printers' Co-operative Association, No. 30 Beekman-street:

GENTLEMEN: I beg to acknowledge receipt of yours of this date, relative to the public printing of this Department. It will give me great pleasure to extend to your Association a fair share of the work of this character when any is required in the Department.

Very respectfully yours,
ANDREW H. GREEN, Deputy Controller.

Here is a co-operative society of printers nominated to receive a share of the work which has hitherto been enjoyed as a monopoly by the Ring's own private printing establishment. Does this look much like a change for the worse?

What have you, the honest laboring men, gained by the millions pocketed by KEYSER, ANDREW J. GARVEY, INGERSOLL, and MILLER, the carpenter? Do you know any of your fellow-workmen who were the better off for INGERSOLL'S enormous demands on the City Treasury? Did you ever hear of a working man who gained by the amounts paid to SMITH, the carpet man, or to T. C. HENESSY? Do you not see who it is that has really thriven on the plunder carried on in your name? If not, ask Boss TWEED and his confederates to take you to their "palatial mansions" and show you.

Now the working men are invited to make a great demonstration, and demand the perpetuation of a system which has robbed them of their wages, raised the rent of their dwellings, increased the price of food and clothing, and enriched only a handful of knaves who lead the "Ring," or who live upon it. The great body of mechanics are too well acquainted with the facts to heed any such idiotic appeal. Let them resolve to strike down the thieves at the next election, and demand an honest government for this City, without regard to party. In that way, and in that way alone, can they obtain redress for their grievances, and place the labor market upon such a footing in this City as that a few hundreds of loafers shall not be enabled to find employment under false pretences, while hard-working men, who refuse to be made the tools of politicians, are turned adrift.

A Specimen Brick—Mr. Marshall O. Roberts.

The Tribune yesterday expressed profound astonishment that such men as "MOSES H. GRINNELL and MARSHALL O. ROBERTS" should be suspected of having any sympathy with Tammany Republicans.

It need not be so wonderfully surprised. Mr. MOSES H. GRINNELL is a man whose character everybody respects—but it is well known that he is under great irritation, created by a sense of personal ill-usage at the hands of President GRANT. The circumstances connected with his removal from the Custom-house created much exasperation in his mind—whether justly or not, we need not now discuss, especially as we expressed our opinion on the subject at the time of the transaction referred to. This bitterness of Mr. GRINNELL toward Gen. GRANT was referred to by Mr. BARNUM at Syracuse—Mr. GRINNELL being spoken of as "the man who gave his checks for fifty thousand dollars to elect ULYSSES S. GRANT"—a mode of dwelling upon Mr. GRINNELL'S grievances which is too undignified to have proceeded from that gentleman himself. Now the Tammany Republicans, under the leadership of Mr. GREELEY, are all opposed to Gen. GRANT, partly because Mr. GREELEY wants to be President himself. He is a rival candidate, and this puts him out of Court as an impartial witness concerning GRANT'S Administration. His followers have various motives for their opposition, some by no means so pure as Mr. GREELEY'S. Gen. BARNUM, for instance, is an office-holder under Tammany Hall. TWEED & Co. have no better friends than WALDO HUTCHINS or RUFE ANDREWS. To this amalgamation of soreheads and Tammany politicians comes Mr. GRINNELL, and his friends—we have no doubt, much against Mr. GRINNELL'S wish—seek to move pity on his behalf by talking of his fifty thousand dollar checks.

As for Mr. MARSHALL O. ROBERTS, the Tribune does not help its cause by trotting him out as a model Republican. This is the gentleman who took the opportunity, at a critical stage of the election last year, to come forward, in conjunction with others, with a certificate whitewashing TWEED, HALL & Co.—a certificate which was applied for by the Ring to be used against Republicans and the people at the elections, which was so used, and which greatly crippled the efforts made then to expose and destroy the Ring. At that election HALL was up before the people, and the Taylor-O. Roberts certificate helped to re-elect him, among other results which it accomplished. Moreover, Mr. ROBERTS boasted that he caused at least three hundred persons to vote for HALL. No doubt his confidence in HALL is still unshaken, A greater act of treachery than ROBERTS played last Fall was never committed. The Tribune is disposed to be well satisfied with the authority of the Nation on these subjects. Hear what it says about the whitewashing certificate of ROBERTS & Co.:

"Is it not fresh in everybody's mind how, within two short months, Judge HILTON, who but a little while ago stepped down from the Bench, and is now the confidential adviser of the greatest merchant in New-York, and whom the Evening Post talks of as a reformer, after acting in conjunction with these men for a year, coolly spent an evening persuading the editor of a religious paper that the members of the Ring were respectable persons who had grown rich by 'speculating in real estate?' Is it not fresh too, in everybody's recollection that when CONNOLLY, the Controller, who has been for three years engaged in frauds and embezzlements, found that his deliberate and unlawful refusal to publish his accounts for a whole year was rousing public attention and likely to lead to scrutiny, and wanted to get himself whitewashed, and his delinquency covered up, he went not to Tombs lawyers or brother politicians, but to four or five of the leading bankers and merchants of New-York, and that they did what he wanted not only without hesitation, but with alacrity!"

The part which Mr. MARSHALL O. ROBERTS played in that trick ought never to be forgotten or forgiven by any one who desires to see the knaves driven out of power in this City, and honest men put in their places. Mr. O. ROBERTS is arrayed this year, as he was last, on the side of Tammany—but probably his zeal will not lead him to repeat his interesting experiment of the whitewashing certificate.

The Policy of the Reform Democrats.

Every man who has at heart the welfare of the City, will read with satisfaction the resolutions adopted by the Reform Democrats at Apollo Hall, last evening. Whatever is effectually done for reform in New-York in this election must be done in co-operation with honest Democrats. The strength of the Republican Party in the City, even if it were undivided, is not sufficient for the task. Unfortunately, it is not certain that the whole of that strength can be concentrated on the work. The miserable spectacle offered by the Republican Convention of Syracuse is a warning not to rely on that organization alone, even if we can rely on it at all. Every effort on the part of the upright members of the Democratic Party to overthrow the Tammany Ring should, therefore, receive the hearty sympathy and the practical support of the upright members of the Republican Party. The Reform Democrats propose to beard the lion in his den. It is now certain—the World acknowledges as much—that the representatives of the corruptionists will not be received in the Democratic State Convention without a severe struggle. To give that struggle a practical objective point, to present to the Convention representatives of the Democrats of New-York who are independent of and opposed to the Ring, is the present purpose of the Reform Democrats. In their resolutions, after reciting in terse and comprehensive language the offenses of Tammany against the public, and especially its outrages upon sincere Democrats, the reformers declare their intention to "send a full delegation to represent the honest and incorruptible Democratic Party, of the City and County, in the approaching State Convention at Rochester." This is a move in the right direction. It will give the Democratic Party an opportunity to repudiate the Tammany men, and every good citizen will rejoice if the party accept the opportunity when it is thus given. We do not for a moment believe that any honest Republican will desire any other result. Whatever might be the partisan gain from a continuation of the intimate relations between TWEED, SWEENY and HALL and the Democratic Party in the State, it would be dearly bought at the expense of injury to the cause of good government. What is needed above all things is the suppression of the Tammany corruptionists at every point, their utter rout, on the ground of their own party conventions as well as in the general election. If the representative body of the Democratic Party will cast them out, and if the Reform Democrats are recognized as presenting the only legitimate organization of the party in this City, then the work of breaking down the impudent thieves who boast that they can defy the people will be much lightened. These highwaymen in office have issued their call for primary meetings, and are seeking to use all their machinery of intrigue, intimidation, and corruption to establish their claim to represent the Democratic Party in this City. If they succeed in their brazen effort, we believe the Democratic Party will only share the ruin which is impending over them. But if they do not succeed, if the party refuse to be bound any longer to their shameful corruption, and give recognition to the Reform Democrats, then that will be a definite gain for honest people, and should be so accepted.

The City Accounts.

We invite the attention of people who wish to know why money is not forthcoming to pay the Park laborers, to the partial statement of City expenditures reproduced elsewhere from the columns of the Evening Mail. We are told that some thousands of laborers are on the verge of want, because their pay is in arrears for two, four, and eight weeks. Some of these men have been instigated by the very knaves who have robbed them, to assemble and make certain illegal demands, and resolve upon certain misdirected threats. The Ring have stolen the bread of the men in their employment, and yet they have the effrontery to tell them, "Don't concern yourselves about our plunder, you certainly won't get a single stolen loaf back from us, but go and tell your fellow-citizens they must pay for your wages twice over, and if they refuse, why you may sack the bakers' shops."

These fresh elucidations of the long-continued conspiracy to defraud the tax-payers, carry with them the seasonable reminder of how suicidal it would be to permit convicted public swindlers to handle another dollar of the people's money. Take the first account in the tables presented today, on whose merits Mr. KEYSER asks us to suspend judgment. Does any man in his senses believe that the "repairs" on the gas-fixtures of various offices in the City Hall, with those of some half dozen rooms outside of it, cost in 1869 the enormous sum of eighty-two thousand dollars, and that in 1870 the same fixtures demanded an expenditure of seventy two thousand dollars? If Mr. KEYSER had thrown some light on these items, it would have been more to the purpose than his reference to his foundry, and its incessant employment on Croton pipes. Mr. KEYSER and his companions ought to know that the repairing of gas-fixtures is an operation perfectly familiar to every tax-payer in this community. Everybody knows that, under the most trying circumstances, it is impossible to devote above a few hours to any single job of this nature, and that the materials required in addition to the labor, are exceedingly slight. Yet a sum in simple division will reveal the fact that the City could have kept a gas-fitter employed at four dollars a day for a hundred years, (including Sundays,) for the same amount as they profess to have paid to JOHN H. KEYSER & Co., and still have had $2,000 over to pay for solder, putty and pieces of pipe. Again, we have presented to us the suggestive fact that a certain DANIEL BERRIAN is supposed to have furnished the Department of Public Works with brushes and brooms to the amount of over $30,000 in two years. These were not employed, be it noted, in cleaning the streets. That little job, which might as well have been left to vagabond dogs, as in the East, cost the City during 1870 and 1871 at least $1,407,871. Of this modest amount there is $120,200 set down to the account of "removing ice and snow," which, in almost every street except Broadway, were left to be removed by the car companies, by store-keepers and by the thaw. Again, in 1871, we have two delicious entries which read as follows, "coaches furnished Common Council and Board of Aldermen, funerals," &c., and which represent the trifling total of $40,163 00. This is about money enough to have furnished a thousand dollar funeral to all the Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the City of New-York, and had the money been expended to be finally rid of them, we don't think anybody would have grudged it. As it is, the Park laborers may be interested in knowing that the intelligent rum-sellers and Ward politicians who sit around our Council Board and receive $6,000 a year for doing nothing, cost the City in perfectly superfluous carriage hire, during the first six months of the present year, as much as would have supported four thousand City workmen in comfort, for a week.

And yet, the men who have recklessly stolen and squandered the tax-payers' money are coming forward with the cool demand that, for the maintenance of the "poor laborers," they should have a few millions more put into their hands. The real working men see through the trick, and would rather cast themselves on the charity of their fellow-citizens than that the community should be further plundered under such a pretext. It is for the rowdies, the repeaters, the bruisers and the loafers who will do the dirty work of the Ring about election time that their masters are at present solicitious. It is well to bear in mind this distinction when considering the grievances of the "poor laborers."

Teaching a Negro to Behave Himself.

We have had occasion more than once to call attention to the curious indecencies which connect themselves with public executions in many parts of the South. It is doubtful, however, if any more revolting exhibition was ever made than that furnished at the hanging of three colored men, a week or two ago, in St. James' Parish, La. Usually the latent brutality which takes delight in these entertainments and loves to prolong the dying agonies of the scaffold, as a spectator in a theatre would dwell on a fine dramatic effect, is content to wreak itself on the wretched heroes of the ghastly tragedy. But this Louisiana Sheriff is a man of more cultivated ferocity, who invented for this occasion only, let us hope, such a refinement of cruelty as an Apache might have envied. It is the custom of these amiable savages, when they lighten the tedium of life by burning a few captives at the stake, to sacrifice each successive victim before the eyes of his surviving associates, whose mental tortures thus lend a keener relish to the physical agonies of the actual holocaust. This exquisite seasoning Sheriff OLIVER applied to his dish of horrors in St. James' Parish.

The reporter who tells the story, not without an apparent uneasy impression that it was not altogether right, was bidden to the feast by the hospitable Sheriff in this impressive fashion: "Mr. Editor," says the candid Caligula, "I want to show you something the like of which has never been known in Louisiana." With this promising invitation he opened a cell, from which was brought "a very depressed-looking negro man of about forty." The chief showman explained that he was charged with killing another negro, and that he "was going to take him to the hanging to witness the awful example the law makes of murderers." And so the poor wretch, not even proved guilty of any crime, was actually ironed and carted with the condemned men to the gallows. Arrived there, everything was conducted in the most dramatic manner. When the Sheriff cried "caps down," the executioner, robed in black, sprang to the scaffold and deftly pinioned, noosed, and capped the condemned. These preluminaries satisfactorily arranged, the Sheriff indulged in his most delicate bit of barbarity. Approaching the trembling prisoner, thus made to suffer in apprehension all the agonies of an ignominious and painful death, "he addressed him in a loud voice, saying:"

"Do you see these murderers? I have brought you out here to see the terrible fate in store for you. You murdered a man, and you may depend upon being put to death just as these men before you. I have done something in bringing you here which has never been done in the State, and I want you to look at these men well, for that is the way you will die."

During this humane discourse, the executioner, who seems to have been worthy of his master, had completed his preparations, and at a cry of "time" from the Sheriff, in the very middle of a hymn, the three murderers were jerked into the air, and the majesty of the State of Louisiana vindicated.

After this would it be surprising to hear that the untried negro had been treated to the agreeable spectacle of a murderer or two broken on the wheel, after being, of course, suitably racked and otherwise tortured? Were it not that previous exhibitions of the sort in that section have prepared us for this crowning brutality, it would be difficult to believe that such inhumanity could have been perpetrated under the cloak of justice in any Christian community. It is to be hoped that as such a thing was never before known in Louisiana, so it may never be witnessed again, and that his admiring constituents may take an early opportunity to relieve Sheriff OLIVER from the duties of an office which, as filled by him, makes martyrs of murderers, and renders justice wickeder than crime.

MINOR TOPICS.

An article in which we give the Ring a plain, and as we still believe, a very necessary warning, to the effect that their attempts to instigate a riot might easily recoil upon themselves, is made the occasion of another malicious and stupid attack upon us by the Tribune. If to tell people who are threatening to burn houses down and commit an assassination that they are handling a two-edged weapon, is to be construed into an effort to create a disturbance, there is no limit to the possibilities of misconstruction. It is useless, however, to argue with the Tribune, and we shall merely reproduce the remarks made on another point last night by the Brooklyn Eagle—a paper which cannot be accused of overfriendliness to the TIMES:

"Says the Tribune concerning the TIMES: 'We have been greatly pleased with its cordial and persistent opposition to Tammany.' As a matter of patronizing pleasantry this is well enough, but as a matter of fact the Tribune has been anything but pleased at the opposition to the Ring by honest men of all parties. It has been and is doing its best to counteract that opposition by giving the control of the Republican Party in New-York to HANK SMITH, TWEED'S notorious Supervisor-partner in the Court-house frauds. The owners of the Tribune have been persuaded to do this by Tammany advertising patronage, and its editor GREELEY has been persuaded by the chairmanship of a committee and a ridiculous nomination to the Presidency. The course of the Tribune has brought upon it the contempt of decent Republicans."

A clerk in one of the City Departments writes to us to say that he, in common with others employed in the various City offices, has received a communication signed by TWEED asking a contribution of two per cent. on their annual salaries to go to the Tammany election fund! That is to say, not content with swindling the public to the utmost of their ability, the Ring are still further to abuse their position by compelling clerks in the City employ to supply them with funds to help them to get a chance of a further course of stealing. We trust that Mr. GREEN will see that, in his Department at least, the clerks are free to refuse, as they would in every Department if they dared, to honor the requisition which will today be made by the Tammany collector.

A correspondent gives a picture of society at Florence, which is droll rather than edifying. At the Cascine all the carriages draw up in one place; the gentlemen approach to pay their compliments to the ladies, and the following is represented as fairly typical of the talk that ensues: Gentleman—"Behold me." Lady—"Eh." Gentleman—"Carina." (Squeezes her hand.) A long pause follows. Lady and gentleman look at each other. At last the gentleman with a prodigious effort, and concentrating his intellect, says, "Are you going to the opera tonight?" Lady—"Yes." Gentleman gives a parting squeeze, murmurs "Carina" again and departs, to reappear at the opera with his "Behold me" in the evening. Conversation is apparently one of the lost arts in Florence. Even at our operatic matinées the talk is richer and more copious than this.

The New-York correspondent of the Springfield Republican, "Carlfried," seldom falls into the mistake of copying the inventions of Ring journals. He is one of the fairest of all the contributors to the Press. In a recent letter, while speaking in a kindly manner of the TIMES, he states that "a handsome house has been given" to one of the staff. This distribution of handsome houses, "Carlfried" will be sorry to hear, has not yet taken place. The members of the TIMES staff are satisfied to take their salaries, and this story of the house has as little foundation as any other of the lies set afloat by the "Ring" hacks, who, because they take everything they can lay hands on themselves, think everybody else is equally "acquisitive."

When the postal arrangements for newspapers were under consideration, the other day, at Versailles, the French Chamber was asked to do what would have been a serious blow to the cheap Press. It was proposed to make all journals pass through the Post-office,—the object being to subject them to close surveillance, and to have an immediate and crushing hold on prints that should become seditious. The pecuniary charge this would have involved to the cheap, largely-circulated papers, like the Petit Journal, would have been no less than forty per cent. Happily for the trembling owners, the Chamber, by a vote of 320 to 297, threw out the restrictive clause, and the penny journals breathe again.

Whatever may be said of the extravagance of some of Mr. RUSKIN'S views, or of his manner of stating them, it is undeniable that he tries hard to do good. He has lately founded a separate mastership for teaching drawing in connection with the Slade endowment for an Art Professorship at Oxford. Next month he opens elementary schools in the University galleries, when, as usual, we may expect to get from him some fresh lectures tinged with exaggeration, no doubt, but certain to contain noble and elevating thoughts and suggestions. Such a man as Mr. RUSKIN is a true benefactor of his species, and well deserves all the honor he is likely to receive.

THE PRACTICE SQUADRON.

Cruise of the Midshipmen—Arrival at Annapolis.

From Our Own Correspondent.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Wednesday, Sept. 27, 1871.

The Naval Practice Fleet dropped anchor in our harbor today, ending the Summer cruise. The midshipmen will disembark to-morrow and prepare their quarters for the opening of the school on Sunday next. The squadron, which consists of the Constellation and Saratoga, was under commission of the commanding officer, Commander S. P. CARTER, on the 25th of May, and left this port on the 17th of June. It proceeded to Lynn Haven Bay, and remained until the 23d, then sailed for Gay Head, Martha's Vineyard, R. I., on the 2d of July. It spent the 4th at Nantucket Sound, firing a salute from both ships. On the 7th set sail, and on the 8th dropped anchor at Halifax; remained there until the 18th. Anchored on the 23d at Provincetown, Mass. The fleet then exercised in Cape Cod Bay until the 26th, when they sailed and reached Portland, Me., the next day, remaining there until the 3d of August. The fleet then sailed, and cruised at sea until the 10th of August, when it anchored at Gardner's Bay, Long Island. The squadron sailed to Newport, New-Haven, and New-London at different times, spending most of the time practicing in Gardner's Bay, until the 5th of September, and then sailed for Hampton Roads. When in north latitude 39° 50', and longitude 72° 44', the squadron sighted the wreck of a schooner, bottom upward, which the Constellation first fired at, endeavoring to sink, as such would be dangerous to vessels striking. The Constellation, though endeavoring several hours, did not succeed in sinking the wreck. The Saratoga also fired at it. The midshipmen were afforded gun-practice, as well as endeavoring to lessen the dangers of the deep. Arrived at Hampton Roads the 8th of the month. Since then the squadron has been working its way up the Chesapeake Bay until today.

EXAMINATIONS.

The regular examination for cadet midshipmen began on the 20th inst., and will end on Saturday next. The following are the names of the candidates who have passed successfully the ordeals of mental and physical examinations: Harry A. Slaughter, Maryland; Chas. H. Amsden, Ohio; Samuel M. Peacock, Kentucky; Frederick C. Vinton, New-York; Francis H. Sherman, Missouri; Edwin C. Gross, South Carolina; Stephen Jenkins, New-York; Edward W. Hicks, Wisconsin; Cyrus H. Thompson, New-Mexico; Benjamin Tappan, Arkansas; James C. Gillmore, Pennsylvania; Edward R. Poland, Vermont; Samuel G. Brent, Virginia; Nathaniel R. Usher, Indiana; Samuel L. Lanferty, Indiana; Clive Boult, Ohio; Moses L. Wood, Missouri; Frank E. Batty, Minnesota; Harry H Hosley, New-Hampshire; Herman F. Grabo, New-Jersey; Henry G. Chase, Illinois; James H. Sears, New-York; Robert D. Digge, Maryland; Wm. Braunersreather, Illinois; William Alex. Glassford, Missouri; Geo. Henry Worcester, New-York; and Wm. G. Cutter, Henry C. Dubois, Lewis W. Pelpmeyer, Geo. Kennedy McGunnegel, and Frank Sheldon Collins, Presidential appointees, and accredited to no States. Few candidates have been rejected, owing, possibly, to a better understanding of the nature of the examination candidates have to undergo as to their mental qualifications.

SEVERN.

More About the Ruin of Our Public Squares.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

Your excellent editorial in this morning's issue on the ruin of our public squares is both true and timely, but the worst remains to be told. In making the new grass plats mound shaped they have covered up the base of the trees in some instances as much as two feet, and every good landscape gardener knows that in less than three years these trees will be dead, and the parks thus robbed of what it has taken more than a generation to secure to them and what constitutes their crowning beauty. The bright green foliage, so grateful to the eye, and the cooling shade, sought after by so many in the long Summer days, will be gone; the sparrows will abandon the decaying trunks which no longer afford them shelter; another "job" will be found for idle voters in removing the "dead wood," and Madison, Union and Washington Parks will vie in sterility and unsightliness with that enchanting retreat known as Tompkins-square. Some few years ago, but before the present "improvements" were commenced, it was deemed necessary to raise the south-east corner of Washington-square, and the trees at that end were accordingly buried several feet, as the lamp-posts in the same vicinity will plainly show. I called attention to the fact at that time, through the columns of the Evening Mail, but nothing was done to remedy the evil, and now those trees are dying, as any one who will take the trouble to walk by them can see. Nothing can save them, and in another season they will be ready for the ax. All that is needed to preserve those in Madison and Union squares is a basin around each tree to the depth of the new ground. Unless this is made, a few years will see our once boasted parks as barren of shade as the great Sahara. J. S. C.

NEW-YORK, Friday, Sept. 29, 1871.

Prof. Agassiz and the Tidal Wave.

The New-Orleans Times gives the following letter which purports to be the answer of Prof. AGASSIZ to a resident of that city, who made inquiries respecting the apprehended tidal wave:

CAMBRIDGE, Sept. 18, 1871.

DEAR SIR: I never made the statement alluded to in your letter. I have received of late about twenty inquiries a week like yours. I have no time to explain what are the geological changes our coast may undergo in the next few hundred thousand of years.

Very respectfully yours, L. AGASSIZ.
——, Esq., New-Orleans.

A Denial from Sam. Collyer.

HUDSON, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1871.

Messrs. Editors Baltimore American:

DEAR SIR: You published an account of a fight said to have come off on a Sunday, and mentioned my name as one of the principals. Now, Sir, you don't know how much you have injured me in Baltimore and throughout Maryland by that sad mistake. The names of the men who fought are DWYER and COLLINS, the lightest weighing 195 pounds, and are well known about New-York and Brooklyn. Being a Christian and a lover of civilization, and not wishing to be driven out of all respectability and lose what few friends I have left, I wish, Sir, that you would correct the mistake, and let my friends know that it was not me who abused the Sabbath and got licked. Please, Sir, be just.

Most sincerely yours, SAM. COLLYER.

UNITED ACTION.

Fusion of the Democrats Opposed to the Ring.

A Delegation to Rochester Agreed Upon—Conference of the Leaders—Meetings of the Various Organizations.

The leaders of the various organizations opposed to Tammany Hall, and favoring a reorganization of the Democratic Party, held a meeting yesterday. Among those who participated were Mr. CHARLES O'CONOR, Mr. SAMUEL J. TILDEN, Justice LEDWITH, Ex-Mayor HAVEMEYER, and others. It was determined that but one delegation should be sent to the State Convention to represent the Anti-Tammany Democrats.

Assurances were given on the part of Mr. TILDEN that this delegation would be admitted to the Convention as the representatives of the genuine Democracy of New-York. Mr. TILDEN further stated that the country Democracy were bitterly opposed to Tammany and resolved to refuse its delegates seats in the Convention.

DEMOCRATIC REFORM.

Meeting of the General Committee at Apollo Hall—Speeches of Ex-Mayor Havemeyer, George E. Curtis and Others—The Resolutions—Election of Delegates to Rochester.

The Democratic Reform General Committee held a meeting at Apollo Hall last evening, for the purpose of effecting an organization. The hall was densely filled with a very respectable assemblage, as also was the gallery. Indeed, a more orderly class of representatives have rarely been seen in a Democratic meeting. Among the gentlemen present were Hon. William J. Havemeyer, William E. Curtis, Max Goepp, Isaac W. England, Hon. William C. Barrett, Abraham R. Lawrence, George W. McLean, Hon. Samuel G. Courtney, William H. Wickham Hon. James O'Brien and others.

SPEECH OF MR. COURTNEY.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. SAMUEL G. COURTNEY, who was enthusiastically received and spoke as follows:

The hour having arrived at which this Convention was to assemble, I now, as temporary Chairman of the last meeting, call the Convention to order. This is a delegation elected by the Democracy of the different Wards of this City as a General Committee of the Democratic Reform Party of the City [applause] and nothing has given me so much pleasure as to meet on this occasion such an intelligent, such a numerous, and such, as I believe, an honest assembly of the representatives of the true Democracy of this City and County. Gentlemen, we are here to perform a great work, we are here, I trust in God, to subserve no personal interest whatever. We are here to form an organization which is broad enough and wide enough to take in its folds every man who is opposed to the corrupt and disgraced and dishonored clique who have brought ruin to our City and infamy to the great Democratic Party of the country. [Applause.] And in the performance of the duties which will devolve upon us, let us remember to combine against this oligarchy who are now tottering to ruin, every element of integrity, and every element of honesty, and every true man who desires to see the proud City of New-York resume her former place among the cities of the world, and to see taxation reduced so that the poor man can live and the rich man, at least, can be able to pay his taxes hereafter, will cordially co-operate in this movement. [Applause.]

REPORTS.

The temporary Chairman announced that the credentials of delegates would be received, whereupon the documents were sent to the Secretaries, Messrs. THOMAS J. MCCAHILL and THOMAS BOESE. After the credentials had been handed in, Mr. COURTNEY stated that the necessary papers had been received from every Ward in the City, with four delegates from each, and that two sets of delegates made application from the Fifth and Eighth Wards. It was moved that the cases from these Wards be referred to a committee of five on contested seats.

Some informal discussion ensued respecting the manner in which the sent the Democratic Party in this City, from every town and every county throughout the State, are met here to organize in order that the Democratic Party of this great City—the great masses of the people here may be honestly and honorably represented. [Applause.] And certainly, gentlemen, there is no slight motive to induce us to respond to this call which comes from every part of the State. We have to struggle here to preserve all that is dear to men—their liberty, their property, and their rights. If we speak of the administration of justice, the less said the better. We know that it is looked upon throughout the State and country as a mockery and a derision. If we speak of the elective franchise, won for us by our fathers and sustained by us, we know that it is a mockery in this City. If we speak of the great system of public instruction which has now for so many years given the light of intellect and learning to so many, that has done so much for us, that is a part of the property of each man to have his children educated in the public schools, why we turn to them with dread and apprehension and see them corrupted, and even worse of ruin. Hence it is that we have these motives to induce us to assemble—these motives to respond to the call of the great Democratic Party of the State. Our liberty, our rights, our property, are all in jeopardy. We have paid taxes to the last dollar. We have done everything that we could to sustain the Government, and even now we have been met. [Applause.] And, gentlemen, how are we to escape from this? The memory of the great old days of JEFFERSON and JACKSON has been alluded to by the Chairman. They were the friends of the great masses of the people, and struggled for a pure and honest Government—a pure and honest administration of the Government to protect the masses in their sacred rights. [Applause.] But to whom are we to look? Not to the Federal office-holders, who stand with one hand in the Federal Treasury, and are not too proud to keep company with the thieves and burglars who have robbed and depleted the poor Treasury of the City of New-York. [Applause.] Nor are we to look to those men who, with the wealth of Crœsus and the souls of helots, in order to escape the payment of their just taxes and public dues are hastening to spread the festive board and to lick the boots of those same thieves and burglars and their satellites. [Applause.] No, gentlemen, with the help of God, it is to the great mass of the people, and the honest men with honest hearts who desire to protect their liberties, and what they have and what they hope to leave to their children. I don't despair. The City of New-York gave more than 30,000 young lives, and more than $100,000c to sustain the general Government that our fathers gave us. And shall the City of New-York humiliated, robbed, plundered and disgraced, with every right in jeopardy, not be willing to do as much for themselves and their children. [Applause.] There was a time when the great leaders of Democracy told us that resistance to tyrants was obedience to God. And the great worthies who succeeded them, whose voices some of you have heard, WRIGHT and MARCY, repeated the sentiments and handed them down to us. And, gentlemen, as I recall the last and best, there is one whose spirit must be here to-night—one whose example was pure and upright, whose integrity was never questioned, a son of New-York, one whose clarion voice, whose winning eloquence we have so often heard and hung upon. No bronze statue has been erected to his memory, but he lives and will live in our hearts. I need not call the name of JAS. T. BRADY to your memory. [Applause.] I remember the bright morning of an early Spring, when we met to pay the last tribute to his memory. The notes of the great composer, those notes so blended with grief and the joy of hope, the requiem, have faded away from our ears, but yet the memory of his purity, the memory of his example, will remain with our children when we ourselves have faded away. No bronze statue in the Park is necessary to bring honor to his memory and to preserve the glorious light of his example. We have the past to encourage us. We have everything we hold dear to contend for, and I don't despair that these great crimes that have been revealed among unparalleled in history, unknown even among the most depraved of nations, I don't despair but that we can drive them out, and the great City of New-York, so generous, so magnanimous, so liberal, that responds to the claim of charity from every quarter of the globe, that honors religious, that honors learning, that believes in protecting the rights of property and person—I don't despair but that we can regenerate this great City, that we can drive from among us those who have so outraged our rights. (Cheers.) Yes, gentlemen, I don't despair of the City and the country, where 600,000 young men laid down their lives for the government, and expended millions of dollars in order to complete the triumph. I don't despair, gentlemen, as long as there is a kind Providence that from the commencement of all time, we know, has been the friend of the oppressed and down-trodden, and the avenger of WRONG. (Applause.)

REMARKS OF MR. GOEPP.

Mr. GOEPP, the Second Vice-President, after thanking the meeting for the honor conferred, said that this was a very important movement, which would, he believed, extend all over the country, and would redound to the credit of the great Democratic Party, and relieve it from the odium of attempting to screen the party from the scoundrels who disgraced it. It would also show that the Democratic Party had in itself enough virtue to redeem the party in the end, and show that popular government was not, as some had asserted, a popular delusion and a snare. [Cheers.]

THE RESOLUTIONS.

Judge WILLIAM C. BARRETT then came forward and read the following resolutions:

Whereas, A few corrupt and designing men have seized upon the time-honored Democratic organization known as Tammany Hall, and in combination with unscrupulous individuals of other political affiliations, conspired to wrest the control of our Municipal Government from the lawful voters, and have used the immense power and patronage thus obtained to enrich themselves and impoverish the people, and to foist upon the public treasury a horde of worthless parasites and desperadoes, who know no law but their masters' will; and

Whereas, Under their administration the public debt has been swollen beyond all precedent, while no adequate return has been made to the owners of property for these extravagant and unlawful expenditures, and

Whereas, By a system of false charges for work never done, and materials never furnished, the public treasury has been robbed to enrich these common spoilators, and

Whereas, These crimes and misdemeanors have been brought home conclusively to the perpetrators, until the honest electors of the City and County of New-York have resolved to bring them to punishment, and

Whereas, These lawless men, so far from quailing before the indignation of an outraged and aroused community, and hastening with their ensoils into obscurity, entrenched behind the political citadel of Tammany Hall, have set at defiance the people whom they have plundered, and flaunting their banners across our thoroughfares, demand of their misguided followers a re-election to the places of trust and power which they have dishonored, and

Whereas, There is reason to fear that, through the perverted machinery of the Tammany organization, they may be enabled, as heretofore, by the lavish use of the public money, by pretorian hordes of ballot-box stuffers, repeaters and false canvassers, to continue to pervert the will of the people as expressed at the ballot-box, and make our elections what they have too often been hitherto, mere farces for registering the edicts of the Ring; and

Whereas, To cover up their crimes and misdemeanors and perpetuate their power, they have stolen or falsified the public records, and by intimidation and direct appeals to the mob are now seeking to stir up riot and bloodshed in the community, against those public-spirited citizens who are laboring to rescue the people from misrule, and to bring these criminals to that condign punishment which they so justly deserve; therefore

Resolved, That in this grave crisis it behooves all good citizens who have at heart the welfare of the City, the safety of property and the preservation of public liberty, to make common cause against the common enemy.

Resolved, That we, the representatives of the Democratic Reform Party of the City and County, delegated by the Democratic electors of New-York, in their primary elections, to represent them in General Committee, do hereby pledge ourselves to labor unceasingly to restore an honest and economical administration, and correct the evils under which the people labor, through the debasing influences of the corrupt cabal in Tammany Hall.

Resolved, That we invite all true and tried Democrats, and every law-abiding citizen, to join with us in this work of reform, and extend to them a cordial invitation to enter our organization in their several Wards.

Resolved, That this General Committee, in conformity with the authority confided to us by our constituents, will send a full delegation to represent the honest and incorruptible Democratic Party, of the City and County, in the approaching State Convention at Rochester, and that we pledge to the nominees of that Convention our hearty and undivided support.

Resolved, That we will give to the Citizens' Committee of Seventy, now investigating the frauds upon the public Treasury, our zealous and energetic assistance in the prosecution of their good work, to the end that the corrupt Ring may be broken up, the wrongs of the tax-payers righted, the perpetrators of these frauds brought to punishment, and the fair fame of the Democratic Party, which these unworthy servants have dragged down to ignominy, be restored bright and untarnished in all the lustre of its ancient and honorable renown.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Mr. MOONEY then moved that a Committee of one or more from each ward be appointed to select one delegate and one alternate to represent the Assembly districts of this City in the Democratic Convention at Rochester. The motion was carried, and the Committee was appointed, and retired to discharge their duty. Their names are as follows:

John Moore, Henry Opp, William Hughes, John Mitchell, M. Carroll, Peter Mitchell, Alexander V. Davidson, John F. Gerdes, Peter Bowe, Archibald Phillips, Jr., Anthony Miller, Joseph Shannon, Benjamin Wood, Charles Cowan, Daniel M. O'Brien, Joseph Strack, R. B. Nooney, Francis M. Bixby, B. Shuman, Charles Johnson, Nicholas Seagrist, I. W. England.

LETTER FROM GEN. DIX.

While the Committee were absent, Mr. COURTNEY read the following letter from Gen. JOHN A. DIX:

NO. 157 FULTON-STREET, Sept. 29, 1871.

GENTLEMEN: I have just received your favor of this morning, asking if I will consent to go to the State Convention at Rochester as a delegate from this City in behalf of the Democratic reform movement. I would do so with the greatest pleasure if I could be absent from the City at the time the Convention is to be held. But I have engagements here connected with important interests not my own which cannot be neglected. I desire to assure you of my hearty concurrence in the movement, and of my willingness to do all in my power to give it effect.

I am, gentlemen, truly yours,

JOHN A. DIX.

THE DELEGATES.

The Committee on Delegates reported the following names:

DELEGATES.	ALTERNATES.
Charles O'Conor,	Roswell D. Hatch,
Oswald Ottendorfer,	Herman Ubl,
Augustus Schell,	John Wheeler,
Edward Cooper,	Edmond H. Miller,
Thomas A. Ledwith,	Thomas Maher,
Magnus Gross,	Philip F. Schwenger,
Thomas J. McCahill,	E. J. Hamilton,
John C. Havemeyer,	Hy. L. Clinton,
George W. McLean,	Peter Gilsey,
Wm. L. Curtis,	Thomas Rogers,
Benjamin Wood,	Patrick G. Maloney,
Joseph Blumenthal,	Wm. S. Giles,
Oliver Charlock,	John A. Bennett,
John W. Chanler,	M. S. Miller,
Max Goepp,	D. M. Kohler,
A. R. Lawrence,	Jenkins Van Schaick,
Marcus Otterbourg,	Adolf Berckman,
E. R. Robinson,	Gilbert M. Speir,
John Mockridge,	J. Mansfield Davis,
Christian Schwarzwalder	S. Mehrbeck,
William H. Wickham.	L. M. Van Work.

The report was adopted, and Mr. COURTNEY explained that these delegates were the combined elements of all the Democratic organizations of the City who had consented that these gentlemen should represent them at Rochester. It was intended that the representation from this City should be split, but this intention of Tammany was defeated. The delegates were substantial and honorable men, and CHARLES O'CONOR was to be the standard-bearer against corruption and fraud at Rochester on Oct. 4. Every man had consented to serve and to see if the Convention would dare to admit Tammany against such men as these.

It was resolved that when the Convention adjourn it be to meet on Thursday evening, and the Convention then adjourned with cheers for Mr. HAVEMEYER.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS.

The Democratic Union Party.

The Roosevelt Democracy met last evening at Cooper Institute. Mr. S. H. RANDALL reported that the various Anti-Tammany Organizations had agreed upon a delegation to the State Convention at Rochester. The announcement was received with applause. After some discussion in regard to organization the meeting adjourned.

The Anti-Tammany Democrats United—Important Meeting of the Ledwith Democracy.

The regular (Ledwith) Democracy met last evening, corner of Twenty-third-street and Broadway, JOSEPH BLUMENTHAL in the chair.

Representatives were present from almost every Ward in the City.

Judge LEDWITH stated that a conference had taken place between the representatives of the different anti-Tammany organizations, and that it had been determined on by them to send one delegation to the State Convention at Rochester. Mr. CHARLES O'CONOR, Mr. OSWALD OTTENDORFER and Mr. SAMUEL J. TILDEN had given assurances that, provided only one delegation representing the anti-Tammany Democrats were sent to Rochester, it would be admitted. Mr. TILDEN had stated that this was the opinion of the Democratic State Central Committee, with a single exception.

Upon motion, a committee consisting of Messrs. Ledwith, Walsh, Giles, Schloss and Anthony were appointed a committee to confer with the other Democratic Anti-Tammany organizations, and agree upon a list of delegates. The Committee, upon their return reported that the Committees from the different organizations had agreed upon the delegation

The report of the Committee was accepted, and much satisfaction was expressed that the Anti-Tammany Democrats had agreed upon a delegation to represent them at the State Convention.

A Committee upon organization and address was then appointed, when the meeting adjourned.

Large Meeting in the Eighth Ward—The Political Career of A. Oakey Hall—The Ring Organ Bitterly Denounced.

A large demonstration took place last evening at No. 69 Vandam-street, under the auspices of the Richard B. Connolly Association of the Eighth Ward. The President, Mr. THOMAS F. STAFFORD, opened the meeting with a brief speech. They met, he said, to protest against the attempts of those unprincipled men, HALL, TWEED and SWEENY, to throw the burden of their joint crimes upon the head of Mr. CONNOLLY. He then introduced Mr. WILLIAM EVERETT, who eulogized CONNOLLY. He characterized the infamous organ of HALL, TWEED and SWEENY as a journal which had betrayed the confidence of the working classes, and especially the Irish people. He called upon all present to withdraw their support from it, and characterized its proprietor as an unprincipled tool, who could glory in the shame and degradation of the Irish people, provided he could get up a sensation at their expense. He said that but for the Irish societies that paper would have gone down long ago, and he hoped they would now look into its designing hypocrisy. As to his friend Mr. CONNOLLY, he would say that his enemies had placed a scepter in his hand, the power of which would crush themselves, for they had touched a vital spark when they attempted to thus degrade the Irish character, of which Mr. CONNOLLY was the representative. He promised that the demonstration which would shortly take place would strike terror into their hearts. They struck a foul blow, and Irishmen can never allow a man to be struck below the belt. [Applause.] Mr. CHAS. MCCARTHY spoke in a similar strain. He eulogized Mr. CONNOLLY, and denounced OAKEY HALL as a traitor. He denounced the editor of the Ring organ as a pirate, who gloated over the disgrace which the scenes of the 12th of July inflicted on the Irish people, and held him entirely responsible for that unfortunate occurrence. He was trying to do the same thing now; but he (the speaker) was happy to find that the working masses had more common sense than to listen to the insinuations of a hypocrite. He charged OAKEY HALL with stealing the vouchers with his tools.

Mr. CONNERY presented the following resolutions, which were adopted unanimously:

Whereas, We, the citizens of the Eight Ward Richard B. Connolly Association in public meeting assembled, hereby indorse the action of the said R. B. CONNOLLY in the able stand he has made against the duplicity and cunning of men claiming and calling themselves friends and Democrats, and

Resolved, That we look upon the ingratitude of those miscalled friends and Democrats as subversive of the best interests of the party, whom the vast majority of Irish citizens and Democrats have supported for a quarter of a century.

Resolved, That we view the present disorganization in the Democratic ranks of this City and State as the work of a few conspirators who league together to crush the chief representative of the Irish element in this City.

German Democrats of the Fourteenth Ward—Tammany Repudiated.

The Executive Committee of the German Democrats of the Fourteenth Ward met last night at No. 104 Bowery, with Vice President GROBE in the chair. The resolutions passed by the German General Committee at Teutonia Assembly Rooms, on Sept. 22, were indorsed. Short speeches were made by several members repudiating Tammany Hall, and calling on the German citizens to go hand in hand at the coming election as an independent body, foreswearing allegiance to any particular party, claiming that the German element in this City was strong enough to demand as their right that they should be more fully represented in the City Government.

The Sixth Ward Germans—The Attempt to Incite a Riot Denounced.

About 1,000 German citizens of the Sixth Senatorial District assembled last evening in the larger Concordia Hall, No. 28 Avenue A, in response to a call for a mass-meeting to recommend Mr. WILLIAM H. KIRCHER, a young lawyer, for Senator in the coming campaign. Mr. WILLIAM GEREMANN called the meeting to order, after which Mr. LEON NEPLER, of the Seventeenth Ward, was called to the chair, and Mr. H. SAUSSMAN appointed Secretary. EX-GOV. SALOMON, AUGUST KOCH and HENRY WEIL made speeches. The general sense of the meeting was to ignore party affiliations in the present crisis, and elect only men honestly opposed to Tammany. Gov. SALOMAN was loudly applauded when he said that if they banded themselves together, the result of the battle in the coming election would be worse for Tammany than Sedan was for NAPOLEON. Resolutions were enthusiastically indorsed heartily thanking the NEW-YORK TIMES for its honest and courageous course, and expressing the indignation which all good citizens must feel at the dastardly attempt of the Tammany Hall leaders to incite the working men to a riot.

Independent General Committee for the Promotion of Political Reform.

At a meeting of a Society known as the Independent General Committee, composed of two delegates from every Independent Club in each Ward, held last evening at Masonic Hall, in East Thirteenth-street, resolutions were adopted denouncing the Tammany frauds. The following officers were elected:

M. GRICE, President; C. L. GROSS, J. T. SCHOFIELD and A. KOUT, Vice-Presidents; E. M. HUSSEY, Secretary; ISAAC ROSENBURG and B. HOOG Sergeant-at-Arms. This General Committee, composed of business men who have hitherto been in no way connected with political parties, will meet hereafter, until election day, on every Friday evening.

German Democratic Union.

The Executive Committee of this association held a meeting with closed doors at No. 200 Third-avenue, last evening. A committee of conference, consisting of Messrs. Oswald Ottendorfer, Anthony Eickoff, Adolph Berckman, Edward Schlieting, G. W. Herman and Magnus Gross, was appointed to confer with the Republican Committee in relation to the address sent by them to the German Democratic Union last week.

The following gentlemen were elected delegates to the Rochester Convention:

Delegates—Magnus Gross, Oswald Ottendorfer, Wm. Schirmer, G. M. Herman, Ed. Schlieting, P. Brunjes, Philip Joachimson, Philip F. Schmajer, Christian Schmidt, Henry Lux, Charles Schultze, Henry Peters, Claus Puckhafer, Frederick Tummer, Frederick Rolwager, Jacob A. Gaisenheimer, Auguste Tautphoeus, Henry Meman, Andrew Schmidt, Valentine Becker, Adolph Berckman.

The Ring Thieves Not Yet Apprehended.

Notwithstanding the processes in the suits of Hon. WILLIAM F. HAVEMEYER have been placed in the charge of the most experienced detectives up to late last night none of the defendants had been discovered, and the only process served yesterday was upon Mr. HALL, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors. The parties who are being sued for the recovery of the money stolen from the City Treasury, it is asserted, cannot long escape the punishment they so justly merit. The rumor that Mr. GARVEY in disguise has fled to Europe seems to have gained credence among a large portion of the community, notwithstanding Mr. GARVEY'S note to the contrary, now said to have been written by some accomplice. The report that Mr. INGERSOLL had been arrested and had made a clean breast of the whole affair is without the slightest foundation, as the furniture man was yesterday like his confrère in robbery, not to be found. If it is discovered that Mr. ANDREW JACKSON GARVEY was the individual who sailed in a foreign steamer on Saturday last, who gave his name as COLLUM, and left the country under the passport of one WILSON, gentlemen of the Committee of Seventy say that a cable dispatch will intercept him.

The Proposed Meeting To-Night.

As yet no orders have been issued to the Police in relation to the proposed meeting to-night, but it is probable that Superintendent KELSO will give some instructions in the matter when the Captains report to him this morning at 9 o'clock. There is nothing to indicate that these instructions will be different from those usually given in regard to public meetings where disorder may possibly occur. The reserves will probably be held in the Stationhouses, and about 100 men detailed to guard the meeting and be on hand to prevent those composing it from doing any injury to themselves or any one else.

Tammany Hall Primaries.

The Tammany Hall primary elections for delegates to the Assembly District Conventions for the selection of a delegate to the State Convention, were held last evening in the different Wards throughout the City, and passed off quietly. The delegates elected last night will meet this evening in the various Assembly Districts and elect one delegate and one alternate in each of the twenty-one districts.

EUROPEAN MAIL NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE GERMAN STEAM-SHIP WESER.

The steam-ship Weser, which left Bremen Sept. 16 and Southampton on Sept. 19, reached this port yesterday. Her advices are fresher by two days than those brought by the Russia.

FRANCE AND ITALY.

The Opening of the Mont Cenis Tunnel—Official Proceedings and Rejoicings.

Turin (Sept. 17) Correspondence London Daily News.

At 6¼ o'clock this morning the first train, carrying the Commission appointed to proceed to Modane, there to meet the French Commission, left the station of Turin. The train consisted of about twenty carriages. Among the company were Signor VISCONTI VENOSTA, Signor DEVINCENZI, the Minister of Public Works; Signor SELLA, who had just arrived from the bedside of a son who is dangerously ill; Signor CASTAGNOLA, the Minister of Agriculture; the President of the Chamber of Deputies, a large number of Senators and Deputies, and the Mayors of the principal Italian cities. All the guests were in evening dress. All along the line and at the intermediate stations crowds of peasants from the neighboring villages, with bands playing, the Royal March, saluted the train. At 10½ precisely the train entered the tunnel at Bardonnecchia amid enthusiastic cheering. The tunnel was traversed in twenty-one minutes precisely. All the carriages kept the windows open, there being no smoke at all. The temperature was 23 centigrade. The train arrived at Modane at 11, and there found M. LEFRANC, M. DE LESSEPS, and the members of the French Commission. M. DE REMUSAT is expected this evening. At the station the Ministers entered into conversation. The French Minister and Chevalier NIGRA then got into the royal carriages. The engines were decorated with Italian and French flags, and the train left Modane at 12½, re-entered the tunnel at 12:40, and left it at 1:25. At Bardonnecchia we found nearly 900 other guests who had come from Turin. We all marched in procession to an immense pavilion, where a banquet took place. The pavilion, 200 metres long, was elegantly decorated with flags and other ornaments. The banquet was served in the best style, and was worthy of all praise. It was, in fact, splendid. Signor VISCONTI VENOSTA proposed as a toast, "France and her Government," and the illustrious persons who had come from all parts of Europe to celebrate the great victory obtained by science. He ended by exclaiming, "Long live France," at which there was great cheering. M. LEFRANC, the French Minister, in reply, expressed his regret at being alone to answer, in the name of France, "Long live Italy." He was sure that the whole of France would sincerely respond. Alluding to the arrival of M. DE REMUSAT, he said that on the morrow another member of the Cabinet would repeat the words, and give to them a more political significance. The success of the work was due in the first degree to God, who inspired men with the thoughts out of which such undertakings sprung. To the King of Italy, to Count CAVOUR, and to the men by whose skill, perseverance and energy the work had been carried out, high praise must be given. France and Italy could now join hands. They were united by the bonds of peace and humanity. He admitted that France had committed many errors. It was now time to work for the good of all mankind. The Minister ended his speech, amid loud cheers, with the words, "Long live united Italy and France." Signor DE VINCENZI, the Minister of Public Works, then proposed "The health of M. DE LESSEPS and Signor GRATTONI," connecting their names with the two great works, the Suez Canal and the Tunnel of Mont Cenis. The Swiss Minister saluted free Italy in the name of free Switzerland, and rejoiced to see that the honor of the great work was due to the Latin race. Signor SELLA gave as a toast: "The memory of CAVOUR and all those who had cooperated in the great work of the tunnel." A director of the Victor Emmanuel Railway Company then presented gold medals from the Italian and French Governments to Signor GRATTONI, the engineer, who, with much emotion, returned thanks in his own name and that of his colleagues. The first train left Bardonnecchia for Turin at 6. At all the stations along the line the country people, with lighted torches, cheered lustily, bands playing and flags waving. On the Italian and French Ministers arriving at the station at Turin, they were loudly cheered by the immense crowds which had collected. The railway station was splendidly illuminated, and there was a representative of Italy and France shaking hands before the tunnel. The whole city is illuminated with much taste and splendor.

A Trip Through the Tunnel.

Correspondence of the London Times.

I confess I felt some compunction about that smuggling myself, as it were, through the Alps before the great dark thoroughfare cut through the heart of the great mountain chain had been hallowed, as it were, by the opening ceremony. I had made up my mind to get over the Col de Fréjus, or the Col de la Ronc, from Modane to Bardonnèche, in my own old way, and had ordered mules for what might, in all probability, have been my last Alpine journey. That was not, however, to be. Not even mules to be had at Modane, and my companions were not equal to a seven-hours' walk up and down hill, so nothing was left but a seat in the Fell Railway omnibus, a detestable and discreditable concern, in which, as our experience from St. Michel to Modane had proved, when they have charged you full value for a first-class ticket, they crowd all the second and third class passengers upon you till no room is left to breathe. Greatly as I think the future generation may be congratulated on the easy access they have obtained in Italy, I almost think old stagers like myself will have cause to regret some of the sensations with which they used, in the by-gone days, to be ushered into the "paradise of Europe." The transition is generally from gloom to glare, from night chill to morning warmth. "The very horses and other cattle," as it has often been observed, "feel the genial change, and they usually cheer up and frisk and gambol, and testify, by their neighing, braying, bellowing, the joy with which they hail, in the prospect of the fair region before them, the reward of the toils they endured in the long weary ascent on the other side." The descent is almost everywhere rapid, abrupt, precipitous. Life grows apace around you at every downward stride; at the altitude where stunted firs thinly marked the bare rocks on the French, Swiss or Austrian side, the chestnut and the walnut, in all their luxuriance, fill the Italian glen. The fig-tree shades the humblest cottage almost up to the mountain crest, and where the brown and sere surface of the soil at this advanced season strikes you as unredeemed barrenness, you may see on a nearer approach that the effect is produced by the sombre hue of small patches of field, alternated with the small patches of vineyard, cultivated by the hardy mountaineers on crags and cliffs, where one would almost fancy the very goat would fear to venture.

But, after all, you cannot avoid your Alps and enjoy them at the same time. Our purpose in coming all the way from London to this place was to know how one could manage to accomplish the journey without seeing the mountain we had to cross, and that was done in as simple a way as one might get from the Charing Cross to the Temple station of the London Underground Railway. When we were all ready VALVASSORI gave the signal, some one called out "Partenza," the engine gave its shrill whistle and away we rolled with the most beautiful ease; EGGALDI chatting away in his warm, eloquent manner; at first passing the glow-worm-like lanterns of men still at work, then in dark, deep stillness, till after thirty minutes, we emerged into daylight at the opposite entrance at Bardonnèche. Half an hour before we were in France. We were now on Italian ground. Our carriage was last in the line, and as the engine worked backward we were close to it. Both our windows were wide open, and we had not the least imaginable inconvenience from smoke or steam. There was no perceptible difference between the inside and the outside air, and one of my companions slumbered through nearly the whole distance. The fact that the engine was in our rear was certainly in our favor, but the unanimous evidence of all who had come through in the morning went far to establish that they also had experienced no unpleasant sensation, and the difference of temperature could only be detected by VALVASSORI'S glass, which marked a few degrees of additional warmth in the tunnel. The highest degree attained in to-day's journey has been 18° centigrade. GRATTONI'S glass in a previous trip rose to 21°. A more triumphant success than has in every respect crowned this great work could hardly have been anticipated by its most sanguine well-wishers. Our pace throughout the crossing seemed fairly rapid and even; and the time employed, both in the up and down journey of between seven and eight English miles, was precisely thirty-eight minutes, but the average time allowed to the trains when the line shall be in full operation, is calculated at twenty minutes.

HERRING'S PATENT SAFES.

IN LAST MONTH'S FIRES!

EXTRACTS FROM TESTIMONIALS.

THE GREAT FIRE IN AMBOY, ILL.

BANKING-HOUSE OF JOSIAH LITTLE,
AMBOY, Aug. 29, 1871.

I was fortunate in having one of your HERRING'S PATENT SAFES, which contained all my valuable books, papers, currency and securities, which are preserved without injury; in fact, everything taken out of the safe after the fire was in nearly the same condition as when placed in the safe the night before.

JOSIAH LITTLE.

ANOTHER.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, AMBOY, Ill., Aug. 29, 1871.

On the second floor, in the Council Room, we had a HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFE, which contained a large quantity of books and papers belonging to the city, which were preserved uninjured. The safe was not removed from the ruins until today—four days after the fire—and was still hot when taken out.

ISAAC EDWARDS, Mayor.
EVERITT E. CHASE, City Clerk.

THE GREAT FIRE AT WILLIAMSPORT, PENN.
FIFTY BUILDINGS BURNED.

WILLIAMSPORT, Aug. 23, 1871.

One of your small safes preserved the papers and documents contained in it, belonging to the estate of Ex-Gov. William F. Packer, deceased.

The safe was opened thirty-six hours after the fire.

Yours, &c., ELISHA ALLIS, Executor.

FIRE IN PEORIA, ILL.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 18, 1871.

At the time of the great fire here my distillery, with a number of other buildings, were burned. A HERRING'S PATENT SAFE contained and preserved my books and papers uninjured. I don't think any safe could be subject to a severer test. The stove in the office near the safe was melted.

Yours, D. C. FARRELL.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The sale of houses and lots on Forty-sixth-street, conducted at the Exchange, yesterday, by ALLEN B. MINER & BRO., attracted considerable attention, and the attendance was quite large. The list embraced nine houses, each fifteen by about fifty, with lots one hundred feet four inches in depth, situated on the south side of the street named, between Sixth and Seventh avenues. Five of the houses are yellow stone, and four brown stone fronts. Two of them are completed, and the remainder in process of construction. The sale was ordered under nine separate judgments in foreclosure, granted by the Superior Court, and the auction was held under the direction of JAMES HENDERSON, Esq., referee. The plaintiffs in the suit were WM. H. BROWN and ROYAL M. BASSETT, and the defendants R. ROBERT CONNELLY, the contracting builder, with others. The property sold as follows: Three yellow-stone front houses and lots, adjoining each other, on the south side of Forty-sixth-street, 220 feet east of Seventh-avenue—houses partly finished, but as yet unroofed—$72,000 each, purchased by plaintiffs in suit; three brown-stone front houses and lots, same side of the street, next but one adjoining above—houses partly finished and roofed—sold for $15,400, $15,600, and $17,100, respectively, purchased by plaintiffs; one brown-stone house and lot, adjoining above—house finished and already rented at the rate of $2,000 per year—sold for $18,500, to JOHN MORTIMER, Jr.; one yellow-stone front house and lot, adjoining—house finished—sold to ROBERT TAYLOR for $18,500, and one similar house and lot, adjoining—house unfinished, but with roof on—sold to plaintiffs for $17,000. All the above property was heavily encumbered with mortgages, judgments, mechanics' liens, &c., and the unfinished houses and all requiring quite a large expenditure to complete them, failed to sell for enough to satisfy existing claims. The completed houses brought a little more than the judgments against them. The transaction as a whole would seem to indicate that building houses at the present time, if a sale at auction should be forced, was not a very profitable investment. The only other business transacted at the Exchange was an adjournment, announced by JAMES M. MILLER, of a legal sale of a house and lot located on the north side of Fifty-ninth-street, between Ninth and Tenth avenues. Adjourned until Friday of next week. Today at the Exchange WISNER, SANDS & GARRETTSON, by order of the Court of Common Pleas, will offer at auction two houses and lots, the latter 16.8 by 100.11, situate on the north side of One Hundred and Thirteenth-street, between First and Second avenues.

In suburban sales, both of those held on Thursday, namely, by JOHNSON & MILLER, at Richmond Hill, Long Island, and at Newark, N. J., by A. D. MELLICK, JR., & BRO., were attended with a very gratifying success; at the first-named auction some 180 lots being sold for $38,850 in the aggregate, and at the second thirty-nine city-sized lots sold for a total of $30,000. The Newark lots disposed of were located respectively in Elizabeth, Frelinghuysen and Sherman avenues, Andes, Earle, Stanton and other cross streets. Full details of the sales effected in both instances, with names of purchasers appended, are given in the summaries annexed.

In reference to the auctions to take place next week, particulars, as usual, will be given on Monday.

AUCTION SALES.

J. JOHNSON, JR., Auctioneer.

IMMENSE SALE OF 1,000,000 TREES.—Everybody's opportunity to beautify homesteads with rare, choice and pretty trees. The grounds used for nursery purposes by the well-known firm of Daniel Higgins & Sons, at Flushing, Long Island, having been sold for building lots, and the firm having been dissolved by the death of the senior partner, the survivors have determined to sell at public auction, positively, absolutely and without reserve, through

JOHNSON & MILLER,
Auctioneers, commencing at 11 o'clock, on the premises, on

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 3, 1871,

and continuing each day until all is sold, their immense stock, consisting of fully 1,000,000 evergreen, fruit and ornamental trees; also, shrubs of all descriptions. The attention of nurserymen is particularly called to the great stock of evergreen, juniper and arbor vitæ trees, (believed to be the finest in the country,) all young, thrifty and just the size to remove. This sale will, beyond question, be the greatest and most important of the kind ever made. It will, no doubt, be continued several days, during which time substantial refreshments will be furnished gratis to attendants. Trees may remain in the ground six months from date of sale. Catalogues furnished by JOHNSON & MILLER, No. 25 Nassau-st., New-York.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE IN BANKRUPTCY.—WILLIAM TOPPING & CO., auctioneers, will sell on WEDNESDAY, Oct. 11, at 10 o'clock A. OF THE

PEORIA & ROCK ISLAND RAILWAY

OF ILLINOIS.

First Mortgage Bonds - - - $1,500,000
Capital Stock - - - - - - - - 2,000,000

This is a COMPLETED Road 91 miles in length, connecting the important Cities of Peoria on the Illinois River, and Rock Island, Moline and Davenport, on the Mississippi. Davenport, on the opposite bank of the river, is connected by a railway bridge. The last rail of this road was laid July 7, 1871, and the line is now open and being operated with a success exceeding all anticipation. In order to place upon the road the large equipment necessary for the business offered, and to construct depots, car and engine-houses, machine-shops, &c., equal to any of the best old roads in the country, as is now required of this, the Company offer, through the undersigned, $1,500,000 convertible first mortgage gold bonds, which cover the entire property of the Company, and is less than $17,000 per mile. PRESENT PRICE, 90, AND ACCRUED INTEREST IN CURRENCY. Principal and interest payable in coin at New-York or London, free of tax. Coupons payable February and Aug. 1.

This road, opened for the immense local as well as through traffic, now offered, will prove one of the most profitable in the West, traversing as it does a section of country unsurpassed in fertility of soil and agricultural resources, already thickly populated and in a high state of cultivation. This is self-evident from the fact that every section of the road passes through cultivated fields and many flourishing towns and villages, with a large city and navigable river at each end. Railroads in the West have been heretofore constructed through unsettled and uncultivated regions of the country, consequently have had but little local traffic to depend upon for several years after construction. But the Peoria and Rock Island Railway is a first class COMPLETED road, with NO PARALLEL or COMPETING LINE, and RUNS THROUGH ONE OF THE RICHEST AGRICULTURAL, MANUFACTURING AND MOST POPULOUS DISTRICTS IN THE WEST. Thus it is certain that the local business is already more than enough to sustain the road, while the through traffic is unlimited, as its connections are numerous, which can be seen by a glance at the map.

This road is a grand central link, to which many of the principal lines centralize and diverge to all parts of the continent.

We invite the attention of investors to this loan. Being familiar with the wealth and resources of the country along the line of this railway and A MEMBER OF OUR FIRM HAVING MADE A CAREFUL EXAMINATION OF THE ROAD AND ITS PROPERTY, WE CAN WITH THE UTMOST CONFIDENCE RECOMMEND THE BONDS AS A PRIME SECURITY, reliable and safe in every particular.

All marketable securities received in exchange at full rates, and bonds delivered to all parts of the country, free of express charges.

Maps, circulars, &c., with full particulars relating to the road, furnished on application by the undersigned, Financial Agents of the Company.

The "Service of Song" on Sunday evenings, at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association, in Twenty-third-street, Fourth-avenue, attracts a large and appreciative audience.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians held a meeting with closed doors last evening at Hibernian Hall, Prince-street. The meeting was a very large one. The nature of the proceedings has not transpired.

The ocean race for Commodore BENNETT'S challenge cup, from Sandy Hook to Brenton's Reef light-ship and back, has been postponed until after the race for the America's cup is sailed by the Livonia and the American yachts designated to compete with her.

QUIMBO APPO, the notorious Chinese ruffian, was arraigned yesterday before Justice HOGAN, on a charge of assaulting JOSEPH SILCOSTA, a Pole, on the head with a stone. QUIMBO pleaded that he had acted in self-defense, but he was committed for trial.

The price of monkeys was determined in a case which was before Justice HOGAN at the Tombs, yesterday, in which JOSEPH DAVIDSON, of No. 26 Lewis-street, charged PETER ROBINSON with stealing two monkeys worth $20. The accused was held for trial.

Yesterday a truck drawn by twelve horses conveying an iron engine frame weighing nearly twenty tons, broke down in the Bowery near Grand-street, blocking up the Fourth-avenue tracks and down town. The freight-cars were also blocked for some time.

A pair of horses ran away yesterday on the Boulevard, and at One Hundred and Twenty-fourth-street one of the animals breaking his leg, fell upon JOHN MADDEN, who lives in One Hundred and Twenty-ninth-street, dislocating his knee.

The Base-ball Convention of the State of New-York will hold a meeting on Wednesday evening, corner of Eighth-avenue and Fourteenth-street. A committee has been appointed to request the Secretary to deliver up all the books in his possession belonging to the Association.

RACHEL GOMBINSKI yesterday commenced a suit in the Superior Court against AARON MEYER for a breach of promise of marriage, laying her damages at $10,000. As he threatened to leave the City if a suit was begun, Miss GOMBINSKI had him locked up in Ludlow-street Jail, last night, on a warrant issued from the Superior Court.

Inspector L. H. BOOLE visited the Astoria Ferry yesterday and condemned the ferry-boat Sunswick. He considered her unsafe for passenger traffic. Her boiler was considered to be in a rotten condition, and the boat itself was in a most filthy state. The Williamsburg has also been ordered off for repairs, as she was considered unfit for duty.

Rev. C. S. Robinson, D. D., Rev. J. Hyatt Smith, Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., Rev. Alfred Taylor, and Rev. J. M. Pullman, will address the anniversary and reunion meeting of the Morning Star Sunday-school, No. 130 West 24th-street, to-morrow, at 2½ and 7½ P. M. Selections will be read by Miss NETTIE COLLINS. Poem by FANNY CROSBY.

Last evening a series of paintings representing prominent events in the Old Testament and the life of Christ, entitled "Osborne's Cartoons of the Holy Bible," were exhibited in the Thirteenth-street Presbyterian Church, near Seventh-avenue. The entertainment was made more interesting by sacred songs, and an explanatory lecture, which was delivered by D. F. POND.

At Essex Market Police Court, yesterday, LEVI KURTZ, alias Moore, alias Reynolds, a systematic swindler, was charged with obtaining a watch, valued at $22, from EDWARD SCHROBER, of No. 439 Ninth-avenue, and a quantity of jewelry, worth $120, from ELIZABETH BAUR, of No. 178 Essex-street, on fraudulent representations. He was committed for examination.

The Cannstadt Volks Fest Association, under whose auspices the Suabian Festivals are annually arranged, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, PH. LAEMMLE; Vice-President, G. H. WEIGLE; Secretary, B. SCHMITTHAUER; Treasurer, CHARLES WOERLE; Finance Secretary, L. HENGSTLER; Librarian, FR. BUCHNER.

In our report of the proceedings at the disgraceful meeting of Thursday evening, to protest against the alleged corrupt practices of the Building Department, injustice was unwittingly done to Mr. JOHN MCCOOLE, whose name was classed among those who disturbed the meeting. There is no firmer enemy of Tammany Hall than Mr. MCCOOLE, and he is the last person who could be used as a tool of any of its branches.

The funeral of HARRY SANDERSON, the pianist, took place yesterday at the Church of the Messiah, on Park-avenue and Thirty-fourth-street. Rev. GEORGE H. HEPWORTH preached the panegyric. The body was placed in a beautiful rose-wood coffin, with silver handles, and decorated with wreaths of flowers. On the cover was the simple inscription: "HARRY SANDERSON; born Jan. 29, 1838—died Sept. 27, 1871."

Twenty-seven complaints against patrolmen were investigated by Commissioner BOSWORTH yesterday. The only case of interest was that of Patrolman JOHN WYNNE, Eighth Precinct, who, appearing in the Station-house with a black eye, said he had received it by a fall while taking prisoners to Court. This statement was shown to be untrue, and the case was referred to the Board.

SEYMOUR HULTZ was arraigned yesterday before Justice HOGAN, at the Tombs, on a charge of perjury. It was alleged in the complaint that in a civil suit in the Supreme Court, in the County of Queens, HULTZ had falsely sworn that RUFUS K. TERRY, of Jersey City, had not paid him $219 for 480 bushels of seed oysters, when in fact payment had been made. The check which was given HULTZ for this amount being produced in evidence, the accused was held for trial.

Rev. THOS. GUARD, a Wesleyan missionary, whose field of labor is in South Africa, has recently arrived in this City with letters of indorsement from some of the most eminent clergymen abroad. On last Sunday he preached in the Allen-street M. E. Church, and to-morrow he will speak at the Central Church, Seventh-avenue, near Fourteenth-street, in the morning, and at Thirty-seventh-street Church, near Third-avenue, in the evening. He will undoubtedly attract large congregations.

BROOKLYN.

There are at present fifty-four small-pox patients in the hospital at Flatbush, being an increase of 400 per cent. within the last month.

The residence of Mr. WILLIAMS, at No. 74 Garrison-street, was robbed by sneak thieves of $174 worth of clothing, yesterday.

MARGARET CONNOLLY, an insane woman, jumped from one of the fourth-story windows of the City Hospital, on Thursday night, and received injuries likely to prove fatal.

ALICE FITZGERALD, aged four years, residing at No. 151 Douglass-street, was severely burned yesterday morning by her clothes catching fire at the stove.

BRIDGET POWEL, for stealing a wedding-ring and $20 in currency from KATE MURPHY, of No. 249 Gold-street, was sent to the Penitentiary for six months by Justice BUCKLEY yesterday.

The report published by several of the morning papers yesterday, that a case of yellow fever had been discovered at No. 755 De Kalb-avenue, was false. The subject was fully investigated by the Health Officer yesterday.

In Part No. 2 of the City Court, before Judge MCCUE, during the ensuing week, Mme. VAN BUSKIRK will be tried for manslaughter, JOHN J. WERNER for arson, and THOS. GALVIN and JOHN CONNORS for murder.

Fire was started in one of the arches of the City Hall, yesterday afternoon, by some person having thrown a match among a lot of paper; luckily, however, before the flames gained any great headway they were discovered and extinguished.

Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER returned to Brooklyn on Thursday, and was present last evening in the lecture-room of the Plymouth Church. The room was crowded by members of the congregation, and on Mr. BEECHER'S entrance he was received with great enthusiasm. Mr. BEECHER thanked them, and in the course of his remarks said "the whole spirit and feeling of the place, the familiar hymns and well-known faces, make me feel as if I had found again my home."

STATEN ISLAND.

Judge J. P. BARNARD, of the Supreme Court, will open the term next Monday at the town of Richmond, when, among other matters to be brought before him, will be an appeal to try the right of the present Police Commissioners to hold office.

Evening service will be resumed today by the congregation of the Reformed Church at Port Richmond. The Baptist congregation which has been holding evening service in that church for some time past, will in future hold their evening service in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The new St. John's (Episcopal) Church at Clifton was thrown open for the first time on Thursday evening, and the view of the interior of the church and the trial of its new and magnificent organ were most satisfactory. The furniture and embellishments are all that can be desired. The edifice cost the parish about $80,000, of which $20,000 remained to be contributed previous to Thursday, but the forcible appeal of the rector (Rev. Dr. ECCLESTON) on that occasion will no doubt insure, in a very brief period, the liquidation of the debt. One of the parishioners has offered $5,000 on condition that the other $15,000 could be raised at once. The opening religious services will take place this morning. Right Rev. Bishop CLARK, D. D., LL. D., of Rhode Island, will deliver the sermon.

LONG ISLAND.

The Queens County Agricultural Fair closed yesterday. Prizes were awarded for cattle, poultry, fruit, vegetables, flowers, farm implements, wagons, sewing-machines and various other articles.

A fire damaged the residence of Mr. J. L. THOMPSON, on Thursday night, at Ravenswood, to the value of $1,000. The prompt arrival of the Fire Department saved the premises from total destruction.

Yesterday, as Mr. JAS. WRIGHT was trying a pair of spirited young horses on the race track of the Fair grounds, the reins broke, and the horses dashed away at a furious rate. Mr. WRIGHT was thrown out and dislocated his right shoulder. The vehicle was destroyed.

The Police authorities of Long Island City dispute the right of the Coroner to issue burial certificates without first reporting all inquests to them. The Police arrested PAT HALLIN, yesterday, for attempting to bury an old lady, although the proper certificate was obtained from the Coroner.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

A contract has been entered into for opening and grading Grand Park-avenue from the Boston Boulevard, or Post Road, to Griffin-avenue, in the town of Mamaroneck.

The house of worship heretofore known as the Union Church, near William's Bridge, having been sold to the Elyville Methodist Episcopal Society, the inauguration exercises will take place on Sunday, Oct. 8.

NEW-JERSEY.

Jersey City has a balance in bank of $285,649.

The Eagle Fire Company, of Trenton, is on an excursion to Washington, D. C.

A drunken negro named THOMPSON attacked another colored man with a razor in Chancery-street, Trenton, on Thursday night. THOMPSON was arrested before he had inflicted any serious injury.

Hugh De Payen Commandery Knights Templar, of Jersey City, yesterday went to Paterson to attend the installation of the officers of St. Omar Commandery of that place. They were met at Exchange-place by Morton Commandery of New-York, and marched through the principal streets to the Erie depot.

ARMY AND NAVY RECORD.

Master Edward H. Gheen has been ordered to the Nipsic; Passed Assistant Pay-master Linsley, Jr., to the Iroquois; Lieut. McCormick has been detached from the Nipsic and placed on waiting orders; Pay-master Meade from the Iroquois and ordered to settle accounts.

The United States steam-ship California has been fully refitted, and will sail next week from San Francisco as the flag-ship of Admiral Winslow, to join the North Pacific Squadron.

Among the recent army promotions are the following: To be Colonel, Robert S. Granger; to be Lieutenant-Colonel, James Van Voast; to be Majors, Wm. H. Brown and Edwin C. Mason; to be Captains, Harry C. Cushing, James J. Sanno, Alexander B. McGowan, James T. McGinness, Clayton Hale, Wm. S. McCaskey and Geo. H. Burton; Rev. Geo. Forsyth, D. D., of New-York, to be Chaplain and Professor of Ethics and Law.

The following have been retired for incapacity, resulting from long and faithful service, from wounds or injury received, from disease contracted, or from exposure in line of duty: Col. Geo. Stoneman, Majors Prime and Cogswell, Capts. Beach and A. M. Brown. Two Captains, Turner and Ballentine, and seven Lieutenants, have resigned. Captain Hodge has been wholly retired. Four Lieutenants have been dismissed, and one cashiered.

It is asserted on reliable authority that one of the first acts of the new Deputy Controller, on receiving his appointment, was to proceed to KNOX'S celebrated hat emporium, at No. 212 Broadway, and purchase one of the beautiful chapeaus retailed at that establishment. If this be true, and there is no reason to doubt it, it augurs well for the future care of the City funds, and shows the new Deputy to be anything but green.

NEWSPACKAGES FOR THE PRESS.

Captains and pursers of vessels arriving at this port are requested to deliver packages addressed to the New-York Associated Press, only to parties exhibiting the written authority of J. W. SIMONTON, General Agent.

News packages for the Journal of Commerce, Times, Tribune, World, Sun, Express, Evening Post, Commercial Advertiser, Staats Zeitung and New-Yorker Demokrat, should also be delivered only to the same parties.
